

CANNON

Roosevelt's forgotten man has been found. He is Bishop Cannon. The Bishop was a great power in previous Democratic meets. This time he showed his head but once—when he appeared before the resolutions committee. Then he ducked for the duration of the convention. He hid out in a hotel room leaving vague third party hints after the prohibition plank was adopted.

HARMONY

When the battle dust blows away the Happy Warrior of other days is expected to be a powerful force in the campaign. He never in his life ran out on the organ. He will have good reasons not to do so now. Seabury's plating of Walker makes Smith without rival as head of the Empire State Democracy. Curry's unwavering support healed old wounds—and Tammany men were left with no illusions as to where they stand in Western and Southern states. Their endorsement of Roosevelt might have defeated him and they felt "Better the devil of which you know than the one you wot not of."

NOTES

The propaganda that wot eastern Republicans would bolt Hoover if the Democrats went wholly wet was spread among the delegates. They ran out on the organ. They will have good reasons not to do so now. Curry's unwavering support healed old wounds—and Tammany men were left with no illusions as to where they stand in Western and Southern states. STOCK MARKET

The latest expression of Wall Street's perennial attempts to find the brighter side of the picture takes the form of saying: "Well, the first six months are the hardest."

There has been a substantial increase in short selling interests on the stock market in the past week. Many experienced observers believe that stock prices have not reached their lowest levels.

DIVIDENDS

Dividends were either reduced or omitted on 538 different stocks in June. This is a record.

KREUGER

It has come to light that a prominent Dutch lawyer was a visitor to New York about seven months before the Kreuger collapse. He attempted to sell the idea to Lee Higginson and others that something was wrong in the Kreuger picture. They laughed him off. Most Dutch holders of Kreuger securities escaped with their skins more or less intact.

GERMAN BONDS

The plan for refunding of the Saxon Public Works issue which matures this month is warmly approved in financial quarters. Bond holders get five per cent in cash and also get new bonds for the full face value of their present holdings with a rate of interest one per cent higher.

In view of German exchange restrictions, holders of these bonds get a remarkable break. The plan will probably set a precedent for other German private obligations held by the American public.

Comments are heard here to the effect that holders of Frisco and Missouri-Pacific obligations would be lucky if they got off half as well.

INVESTMENT TRUSTS

The Atlas Utility program of swallowing other investment trusts is being vigorously pursued. Control of Goldman Sachs is the current objective. Especially strenuous efforts are being made to round up Goldman Sachs stock on the Pacific Coast. The ethics of Atlas activities are criticized.

Britain Is In Favor Of Hoover Plan

Cordially Welcomes Disarming Proposal With Certain Changes

LONDON, July 7.—(UP)—Great Britain cordially welcomes the Hoover disarmament plan, Stanley Baldwin, acting prime minister, announced in the House of Commons today.

However, he indicated, Britain is unable to accept the plan unconditionally. She agrees on the inter-connection of the problems of military, naval and air disarmament, he added.

The United Kingdom proposes a reduction of capital ship tonnage by 195,000 tons as opposed to the 175,000 tons proposed by President Hoover, Baldwin announced.

Submarines should be entirely abolished and aerial bombing completely prohibited, Baldwin said. Baldwin proposed that capital ships be limited to 22,000 tons and to carry guns of a maximum caliber of 11 inches. He proposed that cruisers be reduced to a maximum of 7000 tons with a maximum caliber of 6.1 inches. Aircraft carriers would be limited to 22,000 tons with a maximum caliber of 6.1 inches.

Abolition of submarines, he contended, would make possible a one-third reduction of destroyer tonnage.

"It is not practicable for us to cut down the number of naval units beyond a certain point," he said, indicating that the Hoover proposals for a general one-third reduction of armaments would require considerable modification before being acceptable to Britain.

"But it is possible and desirable," he continued, "to adopt another mode of treatment. The present limits on size and gun caliber are far too high. Very large reductions, amounting to one-third both in the case of capital ships and cruisers, could be made in future construction."

He referred to the United Kingdom proposals as "inspired by the same purpose, and in comparison with some relief measure must be passed in view of the 'appalling situation' throughout the country."

HOUSE BEGINS FINAL DEBATE OVER RELIEF

Despite Threats of Veto Solons Take Up Measure Promising Vote

BULLETIN WASHINGTON, July 7.—(UP)—The completed Wagner-Garner unemployment relief program was passed today by the House.

Insurgent Republicans bolted the party standard to combine with the slender Democratic majority and force approval of the $2,122,000,000 bill despite President Hoover's announced intention of a prompt veto.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—(UP)—Meeting an hour earlier than usual to speed action on the controversial Wagner-Garner unemployment relief bill the House today began final consideration of that $2,122,000,000 measure.

Despite threats of a veto, the measure as presented by Acting Chairman Crisp of the ways and means committee still obtained provisions which have been bitterly attacked by President Hoover.

Crisp, opening debate for Democratic advocates of the bill, said that some relief measure must be passed in view of the "appalling situation" throughout the country.

"Men, women and children," he cried, "must not and shall not be allowed to suffer for lack of the necessities of life."

New French Boat Down During Test

Seven Members of Crew Saved By Fishing Boat Off Cherbourg

CHERBOURG, France, July 7.—(UP)—The new French submarine Promethee sank off this port today with 73 persons aboard, of whom only seven were rescued.

A fishing boat saved seven members of the crew but the remaining 66 aboard were missing. The Promethee, recently completed, was undergoing her trials. The 73 aboard included the crew, engineers and arsenal workers from the naval base here. The Promethee is one of the fleet of large type submarines being built by France and was completed only recently.

It is armored speed craft, 302 feet long and capable of 19 knots. It is Diesel-powered, with twin screws. Its cruising radius is about 30 days.

The ministry said the Promethee normally carries four officers and 59 men, but in addition, engineers and naval experts were aboard today for the trials.

News of the disaster caused turmoil in Cherbourg. Dozens of small boats sped to the scene, hoping to pick up survivors.

The navy yard signalled ships in the vicinity to aid in the search. Hundreds of women and children, thronged the docks in anxious vigil.

The Promethee, which began her trials last December, was almost finished with them and was about to enter active service.

The disaster occurred while the submarine was engaged in surface experiments, with the hatches open, so that those aboard were trapped beyond hope of the rush of water. The cause was not certain, but was believed to have been an explosion, since survivors said they were blown off the deck. They were still dazed, however, and unable to give a coherent story.

The seven saved included Naval Lt. Cousteau Demas, commander of the submarine.

HOUSE BEER BLOC TO DEMAND ACTION

WASHINGTON, July 7.—(UP)—The "beer bloc" in the house today decided to petition Speaker Garner on the floor of the chamber to allow an immediate vote on the modification of the Volstead act.

The house "beer bloc" reached its decision at a formal meeting of Republican anti-prohibitionists, presided over by Representative William E. Hull, Illinois. The petition was then circulated on the floor and in the cloakrooms of the house.

PROHS TODAY PLAN TO ELECT 2 CANDIDATES

Senator Borah Informs Convention He Will Not Accept Nomination

BULLETIN INDIANAPOLIS, July 7.—(UP)—Frank Regan, Rockville, Ill., for president, and William D. Upshaw, former Georgia senator, for vice president, became the prohibition party's ticket at its national convention here today.

The national prohibition party convention today attacked the selection of nominees for president and vice president after having adopted its platform.

The nominations will be made with strings attached so that the candidates can withdraw if a dry coalition is formed at a Washington meeting later this month.

Senator William E. Borah, Rep., Idaho, informed the convention by telephone last night that he could not accept its nomination of him as standard bearer.

"While I appreciate the compliment," Borah said, "I do not believe the convention should make such a nomination. Such a call, if at all, should result from a great uprising of the people in another convention to be called by the united moral forces of the nation."

Other candidates for the party's presidential nomination were Howard D. Leigh Colvin, the national chairman, and Frank Regan of Illinois.

The party platform laid chief stress upon prohibition which it termed a "wise and beneficent law."

The platform demands retention of the 18th amendment, flays repealists and modificationists and condemns Republicans and Democrats for their wet plank.

"The liquor traffic never willingly obeyed any restrictive measures before prohibition, has not obeyed the law under prohibition and cannot be expected to obey any restrictions should the 18th amendment be repealed or modified, the platform reads."

Under the platform, United States representatives abroad would be forced to obey the liquor laws of this country, while foreign diplomats here would face arrest if they kept liquor in their homes or offices.

Annual Orange County Fair Is Declared Abolished

ORANGE COUNTY TO JOIN HUGE JOINT EXHIBIT

Orange County's annual fair was officially declared a thing of the past today by a member of the county agricultural district board through acceptance by the sixth agricultural district board yesterday of a resolution adopted by the thirty-second agricultural district board of Orange county, declaring that the interests of the latter would be best served by uniting in a huge southland exposition.

This year a gigantic tri-county fair, embracing the counties of Los Angeles, Riverside and Orange counties under the banner of the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona will be held September 16 to 25 and offer an exposition of the products of the three counties.

Action of the thirty-second district agricultural board of Orange county in deciding to unite with Los Angeles and Riverside will make the $10,000 annual state appropriation for the county fair here available for the gigantic tri-county project.

The meeting of the sixth district board, headed by W. M. Bowen, president, was held yesterday at which time the Orange county resolution was considered. The Riverside board joined hands with the Los Angeles fair last year.

C. B. (Jack) Affolter, secretary-manager of the Los Angeles County Fair, was elected today over the action of the Orange county board and issued the following statement: "The history of fairs over recent years shows conclusively that there are only two types of fairs which can operate successfully—a small community fair attracting only the products and the population and given with a minimum of overhead, or a large fair with a large population and wide area of exhibitors to draw from.

"The Los Angeles County Fair, which has grown far beyond the wildest dreams of its founders, has developed logically into the gigantic class, and it is only reasonable to assume that with the addition of Orange county influence it now has grown out of the class of a county fair into an exposition representative of the entire Southland.

That slightly specious statement can be read by the Germans as voiding Chapter VIII of the Versailles treaty, especially Article 231, which reads:

"The allied and associated governments affirm and Germany accepts the responsibility of Germany and her allies for causing all of the loss and damage to which the allies and associated governments and their nationals have been subjected as a consequence of the war imposed upon them by the aggression of Germany and her allies."

On the other hand, the French can deny that the opening statement specifically makes Article 231 void.

WORLD FLIERS ARE BELIEVED LOST ON TRIP

remained "lost" except for the reports of Lithuanian aeronautical observation posts near the Polish frontier that a plane believed to be the "Century of Progress" had been sighted late Wednesday night. The fliers were seven hours overdue at Moscow at noon Moscow time (5 a. m. EST) on the basis of their estimate that they could make the Berlin-Moscow flight in eight hours. They left Berlin at 9 p. m.

The possibility was not discounted at Moscow that Griffin and Mattern might have continued eastward to one of the Soviet industrial centers beyond the capital, or that they might have gone on into Siberia.

Mattern and Griffin left Berlin 10 hours and 43 minutes ahead of the round-the-world flight mark set by Wiley Post and Harold Gatty. They were 34 hours and 49 minutes out of New York when they shot their red, white and blue monoplane, "Century of Progress," across the Berlin airport and headed toward Moscow.

The fliers had set a record for a transatlantic hop and had become the first to fly direct from North America to Berlin. They received a tremendous welcome at Tempelhof airfield, where the rush to the field had started as soon as word was received that the plane had been sighted over Ireland, holding a direct course for Berlin.

The Century of Progress landed at Berlin at 5:42 p. m., and was off again at 9 p. m. Mattern and Griffin made up time on Post and Gatty at Berlin, as the first round the world team spent 11 hours and eight minutes resting before they resumed their flight.

Mattern and Griffin intended to fly over Koenigsberg, Kovno, and Smolensk en route to Moscow, and to continue from Moscow to Omsk. They had 200 gallons of fuel in their tanks.

TULARE, Cal., July 7.—(UP)—Police Chief John R. MacDonald, well known central California peace officer, today was removed from his position.

The action, taken by a 3 to 2 vote of the city council, was explained as "an economy move." MacDonald was under fire for some time on charges of intoxication.

Friends of the deposed chief discussed starting a recall movement against the three councilmen who voted to discharge him—Henry Walker, E. A. Coyner and Harry Smith.

ise to make at least one speech in California.

No date for the campaign swing to the west coast was set, nor was an itinerary made known.

McAdoo branded as "ridiculous" reports that he had switched the California delegation over to Franklin D. Roosevelt during the Democratic convention "to get even" with former Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York for the deadlock of 1924 which cost McAdoo the nomination.

"I explained why I was doing what I did in my speech," the former secretary of the treasury said. "The condition of the country is so grave that the Democratic party shouldn't destroy it by needless fights on the floor."

McAdoo, commenting on Smith's decision to support the Roosevelt-Garner ticket, said "he is a good democrat. I think it was an insult to the governor to suggest that he might not have backed the party ticket."

McAdoo predicted "undoubted" victory for the Democratic ticket in the coming election and added that it would sweep every Pacific coast state.

"The country is overwhelmingly for a change in administration," he said.

McAdoo, who came here from New York, said he planned to fly back to California tomorrow. There he will wage an active campaign for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

MEAL TICKETS BEING SOUGHT BY BONUS ARMY

WASHINGTON, July 7.—(UP)—Bonus army veterans continued to ask for meal tickets today while the government prepared to give them train tickets.

The House was expected to adopt a senate resolution providing $100,000 for train fare and thus putting up to the army's 15,000 the choice of returning whence they came or prolonging their siege of a congress that ignored their bonus demands.

President Hoover recommended the appropriation in a letter to Speaker Garner and the resolution was favorably reported by the House ways and means committee.

The money would be a loan charged against the adjusted service certificates on which the veterans want immediate and full payment.

Walter W. Waters, commander-in-chief of the army, discouraged acceptance of the proposition and declared his belief that few veterans would leave.

He told Vice President Curtis through an intermediary yesterday that the food situation in the bonus camps was desperate; that congress must help the men "or else."

Curtis called senate leaders into star chamber conference and it was decided to urge the House to pass immediately the Howell bill adopted some time ago by the senate.

California's time for the 2000 meters was 6:48.

Pinched Nerves May Be Causing Your Sickness

Every organ of the body in order to function properly is dependent upon a constant and sufficient supply of that "Vital Energy" which flows from the brain to the spinal cord and thence through the nerves to the organ itself. Very frequently these nerves become pinched as they leave the spine and therefore unable to distribute this life giving force. In fact so frequent is this derangement that 7 out of 10 cases of sickness are directly attributed to it. It is then that drugs and operations are positively useless. The cause must be removed and when that has been done by Chiropractic, normal function is restored and nature effects the "Cure." Call and learn these FACTS. ## DOG GUARDS BODY WHEN MASTER DROPS DEAD

King, the white police dog of John P. Ollison, 65, who dropped dead at Newport Beach yesterday, prevented friends from reaching the body of his master for over 30 minutes, it was revealed today.

The dog finally was enticed into his master's car and the doors and windows closed. Then the car was towed to Santa Ana to the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Grislet, 1444 South Main street, who had raised the dog.

King was walking by the side of his master when Ollison was stricken and fell to the ground. Instantly the dog assumed a protective attitude and defied all efforts of friends to reach the body. The belief was expressed at the beach today that the animal would have killed anyone touching the body of his master while he was standing guard.

Funeral services for Allison, who was the proprietor of the Allison theater and an apartment house bearing his name, will be held from the Chezum Funeral parlors in Costa Mesa Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in Fairhaven cemetery.

A sister, Sarah Ross, living in Ganega, Tex., survives.

WITMER SAYS WORK TO START WITHIN MONTH

Outlining the possibilities for giving employment to men in Santa Ana in the future, Mayor Paul Witmer announced at the regular meeting of the Unemployed association last night, that approximately 400 men who live in this city will be given work in building the aqueduct which will carry water from the Colorado river to Santa Ana and other cities in the Metropolitan Water District. Mayor Witmer stated that the work probably would start inside of a month. Work is to be distributed according to the amount of money invested by member cities.

Mayor Witmer also announced that the city would probably have $5000 available by next fall to furnish employment for men in further enlargement of the Santa Ana bowl on Olive street. The city has no money at present with which to carry on projects for furnishing employment for men here, he said, but the money which will be used for expansion of the bowl will be derived from funds collected from ball games at the bowl.

Frank Valdez was elected from the floor to fill the position as head of the commissary at the Unemployment association headquarters which was vacated by Richard Rogers, who is leaving the city.

A report was made on a meeting of representatives of nine unemployed organizations in Orange county which was held last Friday night in Santa Ana. At that time plans were made for the exchange of various foodstuffs among the communities so that all could benefit by the trading. A central committee with representatives from all the cities was appointed to take charge of the exchange work. Plans were made for the establishment of a central distribution point, which will probably be in Santa Ana.

A motion was passed stating that all candidates for public office be invited to attend the meeting of the association next Wednesday night to explain their platforms. Officials pointed out that while the association is non-political, the talks by candidates will be educational in nature.

Special meeting of S. A. Lodge 241 Friday, July 8th, 7:30 p. m., to confer the First Degree of Masonry, in charge of Junior Warden A. H. Allen. Refreshments. R. R. ROSS, W. M.

Assessment Values Drop $11,101,965

Revised figures from the office of the County Assessor James Sleeper on the assessed valuation of Orange county show a decrease of $11,101,965 in the county total for this year instead of the $5,095,125 first reported. Approximately $7,000,000 in intangibles had inadvertently been omitted from the 1931 valuations reported for the purpose of comparison.

The 1931 total on non-operating property was $165,033,250 instead of $158,075,410 as reported. The 1932 net total of $153,981,285 remains unchanged.

Operative property, exclusive of railroad property and exemptions on property owned by former soldiers, schools and churches is valued this year at $13,843,990. Soldiers' exemption totals $2,030,125 and church and school property is valued at $5,176,965.

The total for municipalities this year is $66,203,201, or $2,298,489 less than last year's figure of $68,501,690.

Plan Reception For Pastor, Wife

A farewell reception for the Rev. Floyd J. Seaman, pastor of the Garden Grove Methodist church for the past three years, and Mrs. Seaman will be held by the Woman's Aid society of the church on Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Seaman has been assigned to Grace church in Los Angeles.

Court Notes

D. G. Wettlin, named executor in the will of the late Jacob M. Halst, of Orange, has filed a petition in superior court for partition of the will. The estate, consisting of real estate, Orange County Building and Loan stock and cash in the bank is estimated at $11,000. Julia Siebert, of Santa Ana, sister-in-law, and John Gackstetter, of Orange, a brother-in-law, are named among the beneficiaries to the estate. Each is to receive one-seventh of the estate and the remainder is to be divided among relatives in the east and other California points.

Cecil T. Robinson has filed suit for divorce from his wife, Lydia May Robinson, charging her with desertion. The couple married in Jerome, Idaho, August 10, 1920, and separated August 20, 1925. There are two children.

CONTINUATION OF CITY BAND IS DISCUSSED

Whether or not the Santa Ana Municipal band should be abolished the coming year as an economy measure was the object of discussion at a meeting of the Santa Ana Breakfast club which was held in Ketter's cafe this morning. Following several talks made by prominent citizens of the city, a rising vote of the club members and the many well known guests showed that the sense of the meeting was that the band should not be abandoned.

Judge James L. Allen of the superior court was particularly emphatic in his views favoring the continuance of the programs in Birch park by the band. Judge Allen further declared that Orange county should be one city. There is no reason why other cities should be opposed to Santa Ana, he said. He suggested that the unemployment situation could be alleviated by the construction of an amphitheater south of Orange county park which could be used by all communities in the county and where residents of the county could go on Sundays to hear good music. The probable cost of such a project would be $10,000, he said.

Suggests County Band

George Rayer, secretary of the chamber of commerce, reported on the progress of plans for making an Orange county band out of the local bands which could play in each man's city in the county one night a week, the cost to be borne by all cities using the band. The idea proved to be very popular with those present at the meeting, and it was suggested that committees be appointed in each city composed of members of service clubs to further negotiations for the successful completion of the plan.

Mayor Paul Witmer presided over the meeting, and at the beginning explained the position of the city in regard to the city budget. He said the city was delinquent this year in meeting street assessment bonds to the extent of $142,000 but that the city can pay the interest and part of the principal so as to leave but $55,000 unpaid. The income of the city fell short about $50,000 this year, he said.

The city is facing a problem of how to raise $18,000 to be used for completion of the Charles Bowers museum, he said, although there are stocks, bonds and real estate which will cover the amount. Mayor Witmer also brought out the possibility of saving $40,000 through cutting wages of city employees.

Condition of Posts

Mayor Witmer explained that the music fund for the year just ending; that D. C. Cianfoni, director of the band, received $4800 a year and the balance went to members of the band who are paid $5 a concert. In addition to this amount, he said, an instructor at the high school in band music is paid. He suggested the consolidation of the positions occupied by the band director and the high school teacher.

D. C. Cianfoni, who was present at the meeting, was afforded an opportunity to give his views of the situation. He said outside talent is brought here at times because there are no local musicians who can fill the positions; that the band is so large because it takes three musicians who are not professionals to take the place of one professional; that only 20 per cent goes outside the city as compared with 60 per cent when money is spent in retail stores; that the concerts were proved to be popular because of the large number that attend; that he worked for three years as director of the band and received no compensation and furnished $7000 worth of music to the city.

Mayor Witmer replied that the band is widely known as one of the finest in the Southland; but that it is not a question of whether the band is worthwhile or not but whether or not the city can afford to keep it up.

Approves Continuation

Dave Wettlin, president of the club and well known attorney, declared that the band should be retained and that if cuts are necessary, make them in other city department expenditures. He said the city could do without the band but in prosperous times when all had money to spend for recreation, but that in times of depression the band should be kept so those out of work could enjoy the music and get their minds off their troubles.

B. Z. McKinney called for a rising vote to determine the attitude of the assembly on the question. The vote was unanimous that the band should not be abolished.

Harry Hanson told the group that the band had offered to operate this year for $6100, nearly $3000 less than last year. He pointed out that there are only five members of the band who live outside Santa Ana.

YORBA LINDA

YORBA LINDA, July 7.—Miss Doris Stanley and her guests, Miss Marjorie Walters, returned to Santa Barbara Monday after spending a few days visiting Miss Stanley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burchitt and son, Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Phillips and sons, Claude and Delbert, with Bob Caspario spent the holiday at Newport Beach fishing.

CITY BUDGET CUT $8000 BY LAGUNA BOARD

Cutting the estimate for the fiscal year nearly $8000 below the expenditures for the 12 months from July 1, 1931, to June 30, this year, the Laguna Beach city council last night adopted a budget for 1932-33 calling for $38,121 to cover the cost of government. The estimated income for the same period is $40,290. Previously, the fiscal year has been from January 1 to December 31.

Two years ago the city's expenditures reached a total of nearly $54,000. The city council recently slashed $11,000 from the sewer district budget when it was disclosed there is a large surplus in the district general fund.

The biggest slashes for the coming year will come in the engineering and street departments. Last year $14,438 was spent in the two departments, both under City Engineer Frank P. Gowan, and the estimate for the coming year is $9635. No provision is made for election expenses. There is a cut of $700 in the police department and nearly $500 in the fire department quota. The garbage and trash collection estimate is down $350. Receipts for fines and penalties were estimated at $1000. Fines totaling about $1200 already have been assessed since July 1.

The city council last night was placed in the position of paving the way for the levying of a tax to pay interest on bonds that have not been sold, when City Clerk G. W. Prior was authorized to forward to the board of supervisors and County Auditor William T. Lambert the necessary information whereby the county legislative body may make the levy in the interest of protecting proceedings on the Glenneyre street improvement. The proceedings have been under way for several years. On April 6 bonds were issued in the sum of $56,000 to cover the expenses of the proceedings and the amount of awards for damages in condemnation suits for the widening of Glenneyre. Bids were advertised twice. City Clerk Prior announced that none had been received last night when the hour for receiving bids arrived.

A. S. Monroe, representing a Los Angeles law firm that has been guiding the proceedings, said a plan is under way, through the co-operation of Frank D. Revenor, executive vice president of the Citizens' bank, to have the award assume a large share of the bonds and that it might be worked out. But, he pointed out, unless provision is made now to pay the interest on the bonds if they are sold, when that interest is due next July.

City Judge Montrose Lestrang will be permitted to assess fines in liquor cases in excess of $200 following the publication of an emergency ordinance adopted last night which repeals ordinance No. 48, limiting the fines, and which was declared to be in conflict with the state penal code which permits fines of $500.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Crippled Children's Relief Association of Orange County will be held in the Elks' clubhouse in Anaheim at noon tomorrow, it was announced today by E. S. Morrow, president.

FOUR SQUARE PASTORS ARE TRANSFERRED

Numerous changes in the pastorate of Four Square Gospel church in the county were revealed today with the announcement that a farewell service for the Rev. and Mrs. Wilfred C. Parham, pastors of the Santa Ana church and in charge of the Four Square work in Orange county, would be held at the Santa Ana church at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

The Parhams, who came to Santa Ana nearly three years ago, have been transferred to the church at South Gate, and the Rev. D. F. Myers, now at Anaheim, will take over the work at the Santa Ana church. The Rev. Wesley Norgard, of Pasadena, will come to Anaheim. At Fullerton the Rev. Mrs. Ruth Grace, of Pomona, will succeed the Rev. Ralph Cobb, who is transferred to Taft.

During the pastorate of the Rev. Mr. Parham and his wife, the membership of the church here has grown from 45 to more than 200. Under their management the church has been remodeled and redecorated at a cost of more than $2000 and paid for. They have made a host of friends and have been quite active in church circles of the city.

Both the Rev. Mr. Parham and his wife were engaged in evangelistic work before accepting the Santa Ana pastorate.

In announcing the changes today, the Rev. Mr. Parham said: "We hate to leave Santa Ana, but feel that our work here is completed and new fields are calling. We both wish to thank The Register for the many kindnesses shown and the cooperation and help extended, and desire to express our deep appreciation for the way this paper has stood by and helped so wonderfully."

A large crowd is anticipated at the farewell service here tomorrow night.

PARHAMS LEAVE SANTA ANA

The Rev. Wilfred Parham and the Rev. Alice Parham, below, will be guests of honor at a farewell service at the Santa Ana Four Square Gospel church tomorrow night. They leave this week to take charge of the church at South Gate.

Movie Stars and Bowl Orchestra Broadcast Tonight

With Mary Pickford appearing as sponsor of the women athletes and Douglas Fairbanks introducing some of the men who will participate in the Tenth Olympiad, a gala program presented for the purpose of inviting the world to come to the Olympic Games in Los Angeles from July 26 to August 14 will be broadcast over a nation-wide network of NBC stations, including KECA and KFSD, at 8 and 9 o'clock tonight.

Sir Hamilton Harty, internationally famous conductor of the Halle Orchestra of Manchester, England, will direct the Hollywood Bowl Symphony orchestra in a number dedicated to Miss Pickford, who will speak from the Bowl.

At the Olympic Stadium will be Fairbanks, William May, Garland and Buck Farmer. Fairbanks will outline the program for the Olympic Games and introduce a number of the men who are already in Los Angeles awaiting the beginning of the contests. During this portion of the program listeners will also hear a massed band of approximately 2000 pieces, directed by Lieutenant Harold William Roberts, and a chorus of 1000 voices under the direction of J. Arthur Lewis, well known chorus master.

Man Found Lying On Coast Highway

Thomas Breece, of San Clemente, and Mrs. Carol Clark, of Glendale, found a man lying apparently unconscious on the state highway near Salt creek last night. He was brought to the police station at Laguna Beach, where it was found he was in a dazed condition. Dr. B. B. Mason said he was evidently a hospital case and the man finally admitted having run away from Las Campanas hospital in Compton. He failed to give his name, but was identified to the satisfaction of the hospital authorities, who promised to send for him. According to Mr. Breece the man was in danger of being killed at the time he was picked up.

MOTORIST HELD ON CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER

Louis Youngchild, 36, Anaheim man, walked into Justice Kenneth Morrison's court today to be examined on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and walked out two hours later charged with manslaughter instead of the lesser crime.

The case grew out of the fatal accident on June 26, at Orange and Magnolia avenues, in which two Corona youths, Raymond Zbrank, 20, of 892 Washington avenue, and Paul McMullen, 20, of 723 West Sixth street, were killed. The boys were riding a motorcycle when it collided with a machine driven by Youngchild. California highway patrol officers arrested the man shortly after the accident and lodged him in jail, pending the coroner's inquest, which did not hold him to account for the deaths. Then a charge of driving while intoxicated was filed and following the hearing today Justice Kenneth Morrison ruled there was sufficient evidence to hold him to the superior court on a manslaughter charge.

Youngchild was placed under $5000 bail pending his appearance in the superior court. He was represented today by Attorney Tom McFadden, of Anaheim.

GIRLS SAVED BY FULLERTON MAN

NEWPORT BEACH, July 7.—Harry Felling, of 1228 North Harvard street, Fullerton, had recovered today from the effects of swallowing water in a successful rescue attempt on the grand canal off Balboa island Tuesday.

Annabelle Land, 16, of Pasadena, became exhausted while swimming and her sister, June, 12, seeing her condition, started for her, followed by another sister, Marian, 16. Felling, who was near the scene, swam to the spot where the girls were struggling in the water.

Felling dived and brought Annabelle to the surface. As he did so, the other two sisters, exhausted by efforts to rescue their sister, grasped him around the neck. Spectators had secured a boat by this time and Felling and the girls were brought to shore.

The Fullerton man fainted when they reached the shore and the inhalator was applied by members of the Newport Beach fire department.

Editor Register, Santa Ana, Calif., Will you be kind enough to publish this letter in reply to your editorial of July 5—"The Unhappy Warrior?"

Condemn him? On the contrary, Mr. Burke, the thinking people of this nation can hardly fail to commend Mr. Smith for refusing to make a mad, eleventh-hour leap onto "the band-wagon."

Mr. Smith, as we are all aware, had expressed himself conclusively—long before the convention met—in opposition to Mr. Roosevelt's policies. We have good reason to believe that Mr. Smith's stand before and during the convention was in no sense a matter of political expediency, but was, in every sense, a matter of political faith.

Mr. Smith's subsequent refusal to embrace Mr. Roosevelt may be, as you have pointed out, "poor politics"—but it is hard to believe that men and women of conscience and intelligence could be persuaded to designate as "poor sportsmanship" the refusal to recant one's faith, whether that faith be political or spiritual. Many of us, indeed, feel an unrestrained admiration for the kind of "poor sport" who refuses to recant either political or spiritual faith under conditions which would, perhaps, have made such repudiation "good politics."

"I give you 'The Happy Warrior!'"

KATHERINE BESWICK. (Since the above was written, Mr. Smith has declared that he will support the Democratic ticket.—Editor.)

HITLER LEADER IN OUTLINE OF FASCIST PLANS

BERLIN, July 7.—(INS)—"Rescue of the Nation" was proclaimed as the supreme task of the Hitler National Socialist party by Gregor Strasser, who next to Adolf Hitler is the most powerful Fascist leader in Germany, in the first nationwide radio hookup ever staged for a political party. In a 30 minute lecture Hitler's right hand man outlined the Nazi program in a moderate and non-aggressive form to millions of listeners throughout the country.

"We don't want any reaction, but recovery," Strasser explained. "We don't want revolution but organic reforms instead of decay and anarchy. We are revolutionary today because we have to overcome the declining and immoral principles of the French revolution. Once in power we will be conservative. We don't want civil war, but strive to reconcile the classes of the people with each other, and for that we want to bring the good-willing workers of hand and head together."

"We don't want pogroms," Strasser continued, "but we demand a German government without Jewish influence. We don't want a new war, but we are not afraid of waging war if there is no other way of defending Germany's political and social freedom. We are against senseless armament. We demand that other nations at least fulfill their repeated disarmament pledges. However, as long as others continue to arm, we demand that Germany too be given the right of protecting and defending her interests.

"As to foreign affairs, we want restoration of Germany's honor. We must go back the wrong way which leads over the Young Plan to Versailles, the source of all evil. In its present form the Treaty is immoral and therefore automatically null and void in the eyes of the whole civilized world.

"Our people want order, work and bread. For us a satisfactory solution of the social question is the basic problem of the day. The only and real source of power of our nation is its capacity to work. The National Socialist state will not only guarantee every citizen the right to work but compel everybody to work. Our cry is: Germany, Germany only, and nothing but Germany!"

Beach Pastor, Wife Honored With Shower

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 7.—A delightful miscellaneous shower was planned for the Rev. and Mrs. John Engle and family by the Women's Aid and Dorcas societies of the Methodist church this week.

The Harvester class enjoyed a pot luck dinner at Circle park at 6:30 o'clock and in order to make the surprise complete, the Rev. A. J. Rogers of LaVerne, a former pastor of the M. They arrived home at 8 o'clock and were greeted by the following church members and friends: The Rev. and Mrs. Rogers and daughter, Miss Ila; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Farrar, Roy K. Smith, F. J. Canady, E. ## ROTARIANS ARE COUNTY GUESTS AT HOSPITAL

ANAHEIM, July 7.—Anaheim and Fullerton Rotarian members were the guests of the Orange County hospital and its superintendent, Dr. Harry Zaiser, and Supervisor William Schumacher yesterday where they listened to an address on reclamation given by Harry N. Jenks, civil engineer from Berkeley and a specialist in such work.

Pointing out that sewage reclamation is modern, practical and a necessary speaker said that it was one of the means of solving the state's water power.

Reclamation plans, methods of reclaiming sewage waters and their by-products were all illustrated by the use of stereoscopic pictures shown by the speaker who was assisted in this by Roland D. Flaherty, secretary-manager at the Orange County Farm bureau.

With only a minimum cost, the speaker said, Orange County could take advantage of modern and proved methods of reclamation of waters that are now going to waste in the ocean.

Both clubs will hold installation of officers at their next meetings with Dr. Harry D. Newkirk taking the chair at the Anaheim gathering. Harry Pearson of the local club presided at the business meeting. The speaker was introduced by R. J. McFadden of Placentia, chairman of the farm bureau reclamation committee.

ORGANIZE CLUB FOR ROOSEVELT AT BEACH CITY

Organization of chapter No. 1 of the Roosevelt Progressive League of California took place at the golf clubhouse at San Clemente Tuesday night, following a talk by Ole Hanson, founder of the Spanish Village, in which the Republican administration was attacked. The league is non-partisan in character, it was stated.

Hanson was elected president, E. L. Holloway, vice president; Tony Travaglini, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Vera Baxter, assistant secretary.

Decision was made to send a delegation of three members to take part in the banquet planned in honor of Garner delegates in Los Angeles next week. Those named were Dan Mulherson, William Ayer and Dan Henon. Hamilton H. Cotton, a member of the San Clemente city council, was one of the Garner delegates from Orange county.

Over 100 residents of San Clemente, Doherty Park and San Juan Capistrano were present at the gathering.

Hanson, who leaped into the limelight while mayor of Seattle, expects to organize chapters of the league throughout California and may go outside California to organize the Roosevelt leagues, it was stated.

Late News From Anaheim

PRESENT TAXES ARE FLAYED BY BANK OFFICIAL

ANAHEIM, July 7.—Warning the members of the Merchants and Manufacturers association that the present taxation system is heading the people towards a form of communism where the individual holds the government responsible for his livelihood, E. C. Anderson, advertising manager for the Citizens National Trust and Savings bank of Los Angeles, talked yesterday noon to more than 50 members who were present at Funk's cafe.

Declaring that taxation is now being made for extravagances instead of only necessities Anderson pointed out that the cost of government has increased to such a height that soon the cost of government will no longer be a tax on income but rather a capital outlay. By means of three charts he explained the system of taxation and showed that in California the cost of the government represents $105.90 per capita.

In referring to the veterans' bureau the speaker said he favored compensation for those who were disabled in the late war but that he heartily disapproved of the government also providing something additional for the man who is capable of earning his living.

The meeting was presided over by Harry Horn, president, and the speaker was introduced by Victor Loly, who was chairman of the program. The president appointed O. H. Renner, William Payne, Marion Spencer, E. E. Smith, Victor Loly and Harry C. Arthur sr., to meet with himself some time soon to make plans for the next several months.

William Payne reported on the progress made by special committees to form the code of ethics and by-laws that are now in their tentative form and that will be presented at the next meeting.

A performance was also given in the afternoon.

He also hinted that another Anaheim store may soon join with the I. G. A. store.

DO YOU INHALE?

"We've spilled the beans" in the smoker's interest

DO you inhale? "You've spilled the beans!" said the cigarette trade when first we asked this simple question—a question which long had been treated with silence that would "shame a Sphinx!"

Why? Wasn't the subject vital enough to pursue? Or, was there a hidden reason for the general avoidance of the question by others?

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has chosen to raise this question... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? Of course you do—and so, in the smoker's interest, Luckies have not feared to "spill the beans."

NINE CREWS BEGIN U. S. OLYMPIC TRIALS

On May 23, these peculiar Pirates were in last place. Their fielding was terrible and their hitting only fair.

Little more than a month later they were leading the league, and they still were a ball club that fielded last and batted about third in point of team averages.

The Pirates reached the top with poor fielding and fair to middling hitting, and Gunboat Smith wasn't the umpire, either. How then did they do it? The answers are: George Gibson and pitching.

WIN THE CLOSE ONES

George is an old-fashioned baseball man. All the tricks of the old school are his. He's a hustler, a hustler, a hustler. They have been hustling for George. He is a worker himself, and the Pirates have caught his spirit. Lots of close ball games are won that way.

Recruits helped at spots where most big league managers would hesitate to place unseasoned ivory. Fred Vaughan at short was terrific at the start, but he could hit, and he was fast.

"Pie" Traynor calls Vaughan the fastest man in the league, but not even Estel Crabtree of the Reds, in point of speed. And he's just a kid.

NOT SO FUNNY NOW

Working with Vaughan, at second base, is Tony Piet (that's spelled P-y-e-t). The Indians had him at New Orleans a couple of years back and all the newspaper boys wrote funny stories about his awkwardness. He was impossible. Now, he turns up as a good second baseman.

In right field, big Dave Barbee has been doing a rattling good job—and that applies to rattling the fences, too. The 200-pound right-handed hitter has been taking the pitchers for a ride all over the circuit, with disrespect for both right and left-handers.

Gus Suhr, at first, still is a youngster in point of service, but this year has been a star.

The veterans, Traynor and the Wagners, have helped to hold these young men together. But the veterans have not been able to do it all. What then, is the real reason for Pirate successes?

AW! YOU KNOW!

It's an easy question and you probably already have the answer—the pitchers. Whenever a last fielding club that hits only fair can cling to the first division, the answer is always the same—pitchers.

They are Larry French, Heinie Meine, Steve Swetonic, Remy Kremer, Bill Swift, Ervin Brame, Glenn Spencer and Mill Harris. Meine, a stubborn holdout, finally was brought into the fold and started pitching at the outset in mid-season form. Brame really hasn't started yet, and when he does get under way, he ought to win a lot of games.

The support accorded Larry French hasn't been the best. Every ball club seems to have one fine pitcher who falls heir to a lot of fielding miscues. But French is not the only Pirate pitcher who has turned to watch the ball dribble through a teammate's legs. Kremer has been hampered by neuritis. If Kremer had been in shape and if Meine had started the season with the club, there is no telling where the Pirates would be now—perhaps away out in front.

STANLEY HACK, ROOKIE FROM COAST, TO REPLACE JURGES

CHICAGO, July 7.—(INS)—Upon the sturdy young shoulders of Stanley Hack today descended the burden of doubling for Bill Jurgens, star Chicago Cubs shortstop, who was in a hospital with two bullet wounds inflicted by a girl.

Hack, who came to the Cubs this year from the Sacramento club of the Pacific Coast league, will occupy the third-base berth while the regular third baseman, "Woody" English, plays Jurgens' shortstop position.

"I hope Hack can take advantage of this opportunity," said Manager Rogers Hornsby, "although, of course, I am sorry for the incident that offers it to him."

As Jurgens is expected to be out of the lineup for at least two weeks, Hack will have plenty of opportunity to win the esteem of his manager and teammates and possibly a regular assignment.

If Hack fails to deliver the goods, Hornsby himself will take the third-base position, the manager said. The Rajah declared he does not anticipate a slowing up of his team's drive in spite of the fact that Jurgens surpassed all of his mates in batting in runs.

UNREQUITED LOVE BLAMED FOR JURGES SHOOTING

CHICAGO, July 7.—(INS)—Jealousy and unrequited love, authorities believed today, were the motivating forces behind the shooting of Bill Jurgens, shortstop of the Chicago Cubs, by Violet Vall, 21-year-old showgirl.

While both principals in this drama of an adoring girl spurned by her baseball hero were in a hospital, Captain Dennis Malloy, directing the inquiry, announced he will file charges accusing Miss Vall of assault with intent to kill.

The keystone of the police theory that the girl planned to kill the ball player and then take her own life rested in a note found in her room shortly after the shooting episode.

SPORT BULLETINS

OTTAWA, Ont., July 7.—(UP)—George Von Elm of Los Angeles clipped three strokes from par today to lead the Canadian Open golf championship field with a first round aggregate of 70.

Von Elm, "business man golfer," equaled par 37 going out, and carded a 33, three below par, on the homecoming nine. Leo Diegel scored a 72. "Wilfy" Cox and MacDonald Smith took 73's. Next came Bobby Cruikshank, Horton Smith and Jack Little of Ottawa, with 74's.

The shooting occurred in Jurgens' apartment where the showgirl had gone to demand admittance. Police said their questioning of attendants in the hotel-apartment building, where both Jurgens and Miss Vall maintained quarters, indicated that the girl had grown enraged over the ball player's increasing coolness toward her.

CHARM HELPS SYRACUSE

Coxswains of three 1931 Syracuse crews posted four-leaf clovers on the stern of their boats as they rowed the Navy crews. Syracuse won all three races. This year the four-leaf clovers again rode the stern of Syracuse boats—and again the charm worked, Navy losing all three races.

WINNING BOILERMAKERS

Purdue University football, basketball, baseball, track, cross-country, fencing, pistol shooting, tennis and golf teams engaged in 77 dual meets during the 1931-32 school year and won 69 victories, scored one tie and lost 17, for a general winning average of .776. The basketball team won 17 and lost one, the pistol marksmen won 14 and dropped one and the grid-ironers won nine and lost one.

Evelyn Furtusch Heads For Evanston

OLYMPIC TEAM BERTH GOAL OF GIRL SPRINT

Accompanied by her coach, Vincent Humston, and her mother Evelyn Furtusch, a national Tustin schoolgirl sprinter, was en route today to Evanston, Ill., for the combined American Women's Olympic track and field tryouts and National championships July 15-16.

Faster, stronger and much more experienced than a year ago when she placed second to Eleanor Egg in the National championships at Jersey City, Miss Furtusch is conceded an excellent change of making the American Olympic team not only in the 100 meters but also at 200 meters if Coach Humston decides to enter her in the longer race.

Miss Furtusch has shattered the accepted world's records in both 100 and 200 meters on several occasions, and is running now in the finest form of her brief but cyclonic career on the cinder-path.

The Tustin girl will wear the colors of the Los Angeles Athletic club in the Evanston tryouts, that organization paying her expenses to the meet.

Loyal Tustinites, headed by Phil Brooks, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Miss Grace Shultz, Tustin High teacher who had Miss Furtusch in several classes, raised by popular subscription a tidy sum to help send Evelyn, her mother and her coach.

The trio is driving to Evanston and expect to reach the Illinois City July 12, giving the little sprinter three days to rest before toeing the line against such runners as Stella Walsh, Eleanor Egg and "Babe" Didrikson.

Miss Furtusch is now a full-fledged Tustin product as her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Furtusch, have moved to 156 D Street. Formerly they resided on Lyon street, Santa Ana.

100 Olympic Aces Arrive From Orient

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—(UP)—After having received a riotous welcome by the city on their arrival here from the Far East, a hundred Olympic stars from Japan, India, the Philippines and the Hawaiian Islands began light workouts here today.

The entire party will remain here until Friday when the N. Y. K. liner Tatsuta Maru will leave for Los Angeles.

Japan sent the largest delegation, including 71 athletes, track and field stars, marathon runners, swimming aces, oarsmen and even equestrian experts.

"This is our year," said H. Hasumi, Japanese coach, with a broad smile that displayed his very white teeth.

The Philippine delegation was the smallest with nine boxers predominating. Hawaii sent several aquatic stars.

India's contingent included 20 members of its field hockey team which won the Olympic Games title in 1928 at Amsterdam.

Sellchiro Tsuda will make Japan's bid in the 1500 meters and according to Hasumi he will give Gene Venzke, the American star, a bit of difficulty.

Thousands of San Franciscans lined the docks yesterday as the Tatsuta Maru arrived. Ferry boats, tugs, and ocean liners joined the ferry building siren in screaming a hearty welcome to the Far Eastern contingent, and as the smiling young athletes walked down the gangplank they courteously nodded their visibly heartfelt approval.

M'MILLAN GAS AND 'CATS' IN EASY VICTORIES

MacMillan Gasoline and the Green Cat cafe, two of the three second half favorites in Santa Ana City league baseball, scored overwhelming victories at the Bowl last night.

Making 11 runs in a single inning, MacMillan Gasoline massacred the Spurgeon M. E. South 18 to 1. The Green Cats disposed of the Santa Ana Elks almost as handily, 14 to 7.

Mearl Youel pitched for the MacMillans, stopping the South Methodist brigade with three singles which were grouped together in the third inning for the only run he allowed. Lecl Slaback and Gordon were shelled heavily by the winners, who batted around twice in their big sixth inning that yielded 11 tallies.

Horace Snow, veteran campaigner of a score or so City leagues, took an unmerciful beating in the Elks-Green Cat affair. Snow was driven to cover in three innings after giving up 11 runs. Emmett Seacord opened the game with a home run and the bombardment continued until Snow said Aloha in favor of Sullivan.

Two more games tonight: First National bank vs. J. C. Penneys, 7 p. m.; Al's Auto Service vs. Weber's bakery, 8 p. m.

ANNOUNCE NET PAIRINGS FOR COMING WEEK

Listing several matches that may have an important bearing on the championship rating, schedules for next week's matches in the annual Santa Ana City tennis championship tournament were released today by Director Merle S. Ewell.

With 20 players arrayed in the Class A division and 19 more in the "B" group, all with an eye on the title held for the past two years by Randolph Bell, the tournament entry ledger has been closed. Hereafter, Ewell stated, players must follow schedule or forfeit their matches, illness or injury being the only excuse for nonappearance.

Those competing in Class A are Randolph Bell, Wayne Moon, Ray Dixon, Clarence Rawlings, Jay Demers, Ernest Zimmerman, Lecl Slaback, Glenn Eustis, Charles Greenwood, Bob Hafer, George Randall, Dick Evans, Kenneth Ranney, Thornburn (Toby) White, Eddie West, Don Park, Arno Finster, Lewis Wetherell, Gilmore Ward and John Cress.

Class B competitors are Eugene Robinson, Lowell Green, Raymond Foster, Franklin Burke, Alfred Ault, William Caverly, R. B. Willis, T. A. Willis, S. T. Russell, Ward Bettis, Milford Carman, Julian Brown, Dave Styling, W. C. Smith, Frank W. Bettis, Russell Lee, Dr. Kenneth Coulton, R. Carson Smith and Lester W. Archer.

Pairings for next week's matches:

Monday (Class A)—Eustis vs. Ranney; Bell vs. Demers; Moon vs. Cress; Slaback vs. Wetherell; Hafer vs. Greenwood; Park vs. Evans; Zimmerman vs. West; Dixon vs. Rawlings. (Last two matches to be played on high school courts, 5:15 p. m.)

A strenuous three-set struggle between Clarence Rawlings and Kenneth Ranney featured yesterday's "A" contests. Ranney won 6-2, 3-6, 7-5, overcoming Rawlings' lead of 5-2 in the final set. Rawlings' rapid improvement stamps him as a player who is apt to trouble any of the favorites.

Jay Demers defeated Dick Evans, 6-2, 10-8, in another lengthy battle. Wayne Moon beat Ernie Zimmerman, 6-4, 6-1. Toby White won from Glen Eustis, 6-0, 6-3. Arno Finster beat Bob Hafer, 6-0, 6-4. ## Track Star's Escape From Death Bared

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—(UP)—The same coolness and courage that helps carry him to victory in gruelling races prevented Ben Eastman, Stanford track star, from drowning in Fallen Leaf lake Sunday.

Eastman, it was learned today, was on a large raft with some friends, resting after the Intercollegiate A. A. A. championship which had taxed his strength the day before. As he walked across the raft a board broke under him and he plunged into the water. Miraculously, he escaped hitting his chin or head on the way through the hole.

Instead of becoming excited and battering his head on the bottom of the raft, seeking to find open water, Eastman calmly swam under water to a point that he figured would be clear of the raft. Then he came to the surface and was pulled aboard the float.

He did not think the incident worth discussing.

His experience recalled the tragedy that befell Eric Krenz, Stanford's world discus throw champion, who was drowned in Emerald bay, a few miles from Fallen Leaf lake, last year.

Olympic headquarters announced today. Under agreement between officials and "Dink" Templeton, Eastman's coach, "Big Ben" will compete only in the 400 meters at the final American track and field tests at Palo Alto, Cal., July 15-16.

JEDDY WELSH WILL LEAD '33 TROJANS

W. R. C. RECEPTION SET FOR JULY 20

ORANGE, July 7.—Making plans for a state reception honoring department officers, members of the Orange Women's Relief corps met yesterday afternoon in the L. O. O. F. hall. The reception is to be a feature of a luncheon meeting the afternoon of July 20. Mrs. Gladys McDonald, of this city, the first members of the executive board, is to be one of the honored guests.

Mrs. Florence Merriman was named chairman of the luncheon committee for the party. She will be assisted by Mesdames Pearl Higgins, Rebecca Baier, Nellie Tannehill, Carrie Lewis and Hazel Hall. Mamie Higgins was appointed chairman of the program committee.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Pearl Higgins will give a benefit party for the corps the afternoon of July 14 in her home on East Palmyra avenue. The affair will begin at 2 o'clock and both bridge and "500" will be played. There will be prizes. Reserves Home From Asilomar

ORANGE, July 7.—Representatives of the Hi-Tri Girl Reserves of Orange returned this week from Asilomar, where they were in attendance at a 16-day conference. Those in the group were Miss Lavinia Compton, new Y. W. C. A. secretary of this city, Mrs. J. L. Clayton, who has been advisor for the past year, and Miss Frances Wilbur and Miss Suzanne Clark, president and secretary of the Hi-Tri group.

During the conference, Miss Compton was advisor for the girls on the staff of the camp newspaper. Those who attended from Orange report that the meeting was especially worthwhile, as five members from the national Y. W. C. A. staff of New York were present.

Peace and tranquility had been restored in the household. The threatening prospect of financial ruin had cleared its ugly head and been put down for the time.

Dan and Cherry did see a motion picture the next evening. They sat hand in hand in the semi-darkness while a lovely blond actress in the role of a princess lost her heart to an adventurous young American.

They watched these two cleverly outwit the diplomats who tried to separate them. The young American was penniless but handsome and he was an audacious suitor. The blond princess sang wistful love songs.

When the organ soloist began a popular dance tune it seemed to Cherry that the song was inspired. A girl beside Cherry was singing in a high-pitched voice, Cherry did not sing but she was sure that she would never forget that song. It was beautiful though sad. She and Dan knew what it meant to stroll down lovers' lane but they would never, never part. They would never say "farewell" as the sweethearts in the song.

Cherry's hand, in Dan's, pressed closer. The song was concluded and a new reel flashed on the screen. Twenty minutes later the two left the theater and walked down Twelfth street.

They had gone less than a block when a gay voice hailed them. Max Pearson, crossing the street with great, swinging strides, was with them almost immediately.

"Called you piece half an hour ago," he said, "but I couldn't get an answer. What are you doing now?"

"Nothing. Just on our way home."

"How about joining me for a little spin? It's too fine a night to stay in doors."

Dan and Cherry agreed enthusiastically. They walked to the parking station where Pearson had left his car and all three crowded into the single seat. The roadster was not to be compared with the smart little motor car that had been Cherry's at home but the engine was trustworthy. Soon they reached a highway along which buildings became farther and farther apart. Small, white, oil stations and low dwellings gave way for houses set in wide lawns. It was a neighborhood given to truck gardening.

Cherry's head was tilted backward. The breeze against her cheeks was caressing—more like a June night than one in May. Well, June was not so far ahead. The moon, a silvery half-shell, suddenly appeared from behind clouds. From a ploughed field there

FRANZEN TO ATTEND L. A. LEGION SESSION

ORANGE, July 7.—Among those from various parts of the state in Los Angeles tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock attending a meeting of the committee making plans for the dedication of the new California State building at Los Angeles will be George W. Franzen, of Orange.

Franzen, who is fifth area commander of the American Legion, will attend the meeting with Dale Hurst, of San Diego, 22nd district commander of the Legion. Invitations to attend the committee meeting were sent out to various organizations, asking them to act as members of Governor James Rolph's committee making plans for the dedication, taking place July 29.

Franzen and Hurst also are to be members of the committee making arrangements for the participation of Southern California veterans' units in the dedication exercises of San Francisco's $6,000,000 war memorial September 9, according to the citizens' committee of the San Francisco War Memorial dedication. Announcement of Mr. Franzen's appointment was made by Thomas M. Foley, executive chairman of the dedication committee.

It is expected that more than 1000 veteran units throughout California will send representatives to the dedication in San Francisco. In addition, nearly 20 special trains of legionnaires en route to the American Legion convention at Portland, will be routed through the bay city to the ceremonies, which will start Labor day, September 5, and be climaxed by the dedication program on California's Admission day, September 9.

TALK ON CRIME FOR MEMBERS OF LIONS CLUB

ORANGE, July 7.—Judge Kenneth E. Morrison, Santa Ana, spoke at the Lions club session yesterday.

This was the first meeting with new officers in charge, as installation took place last week. Burli Wenz, president, appointed the committee for the present term.

Judge A. W. Swayze, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

Judge Morrison brought out that respect for the laws of the country and nature are essential to the successful nation. He enlarged his theme by discussing the crime and traffic situations in the country today.

The speaker quoted from the California state constitution concerning personal rights, stating that individuals of themselves, have no personal rights, but must depend on each other for the execution of these liberties.

Whenever disrespect for law and order gain the upper hand in any nation, a fall is inevitable, Judge Morrison stated. There have been other advanced civilizations before the present era, he continued. Through recent excavations in Mexico, scientists have found that a civilization of 40 thousand years ago used surgical instruments which just now are coming into use.

Such civilizations as these late findings represent have no doubt fallen through disrespect for the laws of the country and nature, the judge stated. Not many years back, the average criminal was from 25 to 40 years of age. Now, the average criminal in San Quentin prison is 21 years 6-13 months, he stated. In Folsom prison, where criminals are taken only after committing a second offense, the inmates are 15 years of age and up.

Such figures point to the fact that youth is getting a wrong start. Character training should start in the homes, the speaker continued. He referred to a statement made by Calvin Coolidge when he was president of the United States, bringing out that 89 per cent of criminals come from homes where the family ties have been broken.

Judge Morrison stated that he believes the best way to cure traffic violators is to put them in jail so they have time to think of their wrongdoing. During the eight years he has served as justice of the peace in Santa Ana, the judge has no record of a traffic violator whom he has tried, returning to his court.

Statistics prove that drivers are forced to be more careful when in dense traffic than when they are driving in less frequented zones. The number of people killed in Orange county through automobile accidents has risen considerably each year since 1927, the speaker said. In 1927, there were 52 killed; in 1928, 62; in 1929, 70; and in 1931, 78. According to 1932 figures so far, there will be close to 100 deaths at the close of this year.

The judge stated that children are impressed with ideas concerning various things when they are very young. They are apt to be governed by thoughts which they have heard their parents express concerning people and situations as well. Parents should use more discretion in their discussions in the home, he stated.

Also, parents should explain moving pictures to their children. Hero-worship of questionable characters portrayed in films should be discouraged, he said.

LEAP YEAR BRIDE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Cherry Dixie, a pretty, fair-skinned girl, was a newspaper reporter whom her wealthy aristocratic parents have forbidden to see. When Cherry learns Dan's telephone messages have been kept from her she steals out of the house to meet him. Her father discovers this and threatens to send her to California. Cherry defies him and he orders her to leave.

She goes to Dan, tells him what has happened and asks him to marry her. The ceremony is performed that night by a justice of peace.

Cherry looks for an apartment but is discouraged to find them so expensive. Dan works one night on a tip that Tony Tomacelli, gangland chief, is coming to Wellington. Cherry unconsciously gives this news tip to a reporter on the rival newspaper. The other paper gets the story and Dan's boss threatens "One more slip and you're fired."

Dixie Shannon, movie critic, helps Cherry find an apartment. Dan meets Dan and Cherry move into it. Cherry finds housework and cooking trying. Tony Tomacelli and Pearson, a friend of Dan's, dine with her but the food burns up and they have to dine in a restaurant.

A week later Cherry works all day cleaning house. Dixie invites her and Dan to a bridge party but Dan refuses to go. He tries to write a short story, suddenly tears the paper from the typewriter and hands out of the apartment.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XXI

Dan opened the door quietly and entered. He had been gone nearly an hour. "Hello," he said to Cherry. The girl had turned at the sound of the key in the lock but now she did not glance up. She was sitting in the window seat, looking very small with her feet curled beneath her, her face white against the cloudy mass of dark hair. She thought through the window behind her was dark, too. Cherry had been staring at that starless sky.

"Hello."

Phillips put down his hat and crossed the room. "I'm sorry," he began abruptly. "I didn't mean the things I said tonight. I—well, I want you to know I'm sorry about it."

"It's all right."

But it wasn't all right. Phillips could see that. The brown eyes raised to his showed how deeply Cherry had been hurt. There were no tears in those eyes now but the wisp of handkerchief she clutched was a damp and twisted ball.

Dan waited uncertainly. He wanted to say more, did not know how to begin.

"Can I sit down here?"

She moved to make room for him and he dropped to the seat with a sigh.

"I've been walking," he told her. "Walking? Where did you go?"

"Oh, I don't know. Down the street—I didn't notice. It's getting cold out."

Suddenly Cherry was concerned. "And you didn't have your topcoat?"

Oh, Dan, you shouldn't have done that. You've probably taken cold and now you'll be sick!"

"I don't think so."

"But you can't be sure. You should have a hot bath and—"

"There's nothing wrong with me, I tell you. I'll be all right."

There was silence again. This

Rendering a Worthy Service in FRESH FOODS

A. P. POWELL

Rendering a worthy service in fruits and vegetables in our many Safeway and Piggly Wiggly Stores involves an extensive, organized effort in the produce department at headquarters. Our produce building provides loading and unloading space for 20 railroad cars and over 50 ten-ton trucks at the same time. These facilities represent the point of transfer through which many thousands of tons of ripe fruits and fresh, green vegetables pass from the farmers' orchards and fields into Safeway and Piggly Wiggly Stores. The speed with which most of our merchandise reaches the display stands in our stores is a most important factor in our business. The more perishable products are harvested in the late afternoon and delivered by the farmers to our produce dock in the early evening. There all merchandise is received, checked and graded to our rigid quality standards. It is then assembled into individual shipments, loaded aboard our own fleet of trucks and delivered to most of our stores in the early morning of the following day, ready for our customers' selection. A large percentage of our fresh goods reaches our customers' kitchens in prime condition within 24 hours after harvesting. In the rendering of an efficient food service to its customers the Safeway-Piggly Wiggly institution has but one policy, and that is: "Nothing but the best in quality." In its purchasing, this department combs the market carefully each day in a serious, conscientious effort to obtain the very finest fruit and vegetables available for the patrons of Safeway and Piggly Wiggly Stores.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. POWELL, Manager Produce Department.

PEACE OFFICERS STILL SEEKING FOOD SUPPLIES RADIO SYSTEM IS ARRANGED

The Orange County Peace Officers association combined the July banquet and business session with a pleasing entertainment program at Memorial hall in Huntington Beach last night. There were 107 officers present at the banquet which was served by the Auxiliary of the American Legion post.

Zack Lamar Cobb, former collector of customs in El Paso, Texas, was the chief speaker. He talked of his experiences in the border country, telling many interesting incidents concerning the work of peace officers along the border.

Betty and Nella Olson entertained with piano and violin duet. Russell Olson gave a tap dance. Dorothy Vincent played two piano selections. Dr. Ralph E. Hawes, vocalist, gave two numbers. Bonny Loy and Ruth Keller appeared together in a tap dance. Margaret Colvin was the piano accompanist.

The business session was featured by a discussion of means of acquiring a radio broadcast system for Orange county peace officers. Officers find the radio a splendid aid to police work, they report.

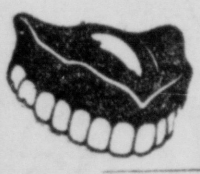

Roland R. Hodgkinson, chief of police of Newport and president of the Orange county association, presided at the meeting. Chief La Verne H. Keller of Huntington Beach was host.

YORBA LINDA FIRE ENGINE IDLE MONTH

YORBA LINDA, July 7.—Education of the public in regard to protection of public forests from fire has paid, according to C. H. Alexander, in charge of the forestry fire station at Yorba Linda. A few years ago, he said yesterday, those entering the great mountain forested regions were found to be carrying loads of fireworks, all of which had to be confiscated by officials. This year, very few people tried to take fireworks into the mountains.

For more than a month the fire engine at Yorba Linda has had no call to a fire, and no serious fire was started over the three-day holiday in the mountains of Southern California, he said.

WHEN FAMOUS ZUYDER ZEE BECAME HUGE LAKE

Holland's famous Zuider Zee became a thing of the past when this picture was taken showing the closing of the last gap in an 18-mile dyke which converts the great body of water into an inland lake. Completion of the dyke makes it possible to reclaim for Queen Wilhelmina's little kingdom 500,000 acres now under water, leaving the lake with only one-fourth of the Zuider Zee's previous expanse. Even the name has been changed, and the Zuider Zee is now IJssel Lake.

EXODUS OF MEXICANS TO HOMELAND EXPECTED TO AID NEIGHBORING REPUBLIC

Summertime is here, but when the warm sun shines down this year on the Mexican communities of Orange county, it will find that many of the little homes of erstwhile residents are vacant. Neglected garden patches are overgrown with weeds and those who tended them lovingly last year, this year are growing gardens and planting fields in the homeland of Mexico.

Since the depression made their agricultural implements a labor drug on the market, it is estimated that nearly a quarter of a million California Mexicans have traveled back to the land from which the immigrated. Of this number 45,000 made the trip in 1931 and in a single month's time from Orange county alone, 3500 Mexican men, women and children turned their faces southward, the older people to the land of their birth, the younger ones to a country of which they had heard much, but had never seen. They traveled by train for the greater part but some drove homeward in their own cars.

Lucio, representative of the Mexican consul here, who accompanied several of the groups to Mexico and saw them safely to their destination in the states of Zacatecas and Aguachientes Calles, chaparrone one group of 394, among whom were a number who had lived in Orange county for nearly two score years.

In some villages Lucio says the repatriates found that they did not know a single individual, the entire personnel of the village having changed in their absence.

Nation Aids Strangers welcomed the travelers and in some instances when they were found to be destitute, have kept them until crops can be harvested, for the Mexicans from California and Arizona have been welcomed by a discerning Mexican agricultural board of the government and have been placed on small farms. Tools and seed have been furnished them. The farmers are to be allowed 80 per cent of the crops and the government will take 20 per cent in payment of the tools and seed, Lucio says.

While hard times loom ahead for the Mexicans, who had no funds when arriving in the country, Lucio believes that when their grain is ripe their problem will be solved and in the meantime welfare associations are cooperating with the government in aiding the needy. Wheat, beans, corn are being grown on good land.

In the return of the California and Arizona Mexicans, Lucio believes, lies the hope of Mexico for these men and women have modern ideas which they are imparting to the natives. Eighty per cent of Mexicans still live as they did in the past but all are willing to adopt new ways and American.

The Great Pyramid of Cheops is built of about 2,300,000 stone blocks of which each is about three feet high with an average weight of two and one-half tons.

DENY TREASURE OF PIRATES IS FOUND ON ISLE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—(U. P.)—Shares in the Treasure Hunting Expedition which left Vancouver, B. C., last February to seek elusive buried pirate treasure on the Cocos Isle deflated in value today.

Stockholders in the venture, headed by Col. J. E. Leckie and W. S. Clayton, had a very pleasant 48 hours computing what their share of $50,000,000 would be. A United Press dispatch yesterday from the Central American island burst the bubble.

"How did anybody get the idea the treasure had been found on this God-forsaken island?" responded the radio operator on Cocos Isle when asked to verify a message received here that pieces of eight and other rich booty had been unearthed by the expedition.

Later, Col. Leckie sent word "Statements are unfounded, still carrying on explorations." Those seeking explanations probably were the speculators along the Pacific coast who invested their dollars in the venture in the hope of obtaining rich returns.

State Warns Against Old Bond Swindle

A swindling scheme which, several years ago, resulted in heavy losses to California investors, has been revived, according to information received here today from the state division of corporations. The scheme came to the division's attention when inquiries were made by persons who had received telephone requests to send their bonds immediately to one or another address for redemption, the bonds to be signed by the holders.

Several of the inquirers stated they had communicated with the companies which issued the bonds and were told the securities were not being redeemed. The swindler's purpose is to obtain possession of the bonds and sell them at any price, pocketing the proceeds.

Corporation Commissioner Edwin M. Daugherty warned investors to use caution and to make certain they are dealing with legitimate concerns before parting with their holdings.

Three years ago a man who used several aliases and moved quickly from one office to another swindled a number of persons before he was caught, it is reported by the division.

HUNG IN BALANCE

JOHNSTOWN, Pa.—Mrs. Earl J. Long's life hung in the balance—of her husband's body. She was in the family car, and Long was cranking it. The gears were engaged in reverse and, when the car started, it shot over a cliff that towered 200 feet over a valley. For a few seconds the car balanced on the cliff's edge. Long, sensing his wife's danger, leaped on the radiator and balanced the car until his wife got out.

Contestants at Bridge Play for Tickets to Hollywood Theater

Entertaining in the lovely home of his parents, Col. and Mrs. S. H. Finley, 1623 East Fourth street, Rhodes Finley was host last evening to a group of close friends. The evening was the diversion of the evening, and was played in the spacious living room, whose charm was enhanced by baskets and vases of large crimson dahlias.

The session of bridge was lent new excitement and zest when guests learned that first prize was to be two tickets to a performance at the Grauman Chinese theater in Hollywood. Therefore each person kept his original partner throughout the evening. When scores were added, Miss Ophelia Frost and Doyle Gilbert were holders of high, and were awarded the coveted prize.

Nurses Hear Details Of Recent Convention

At the recent meeting of the private duty section of District 16, Nurses' association, held in the Nurses' registry, 117 East Tenth street, guests were received by Miss Ann Kennedy and Miss Jean Grandy, serving as hostesses during the afternoon hours.

Among business matters occupying attention of members, was the appointment of Miss Anna Stolpe as chairman to fill the vacancy created by the temporary absence of Miss Gladys Neff, who will be away for the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Scott Dale was elected secretary-treasurer following the resignation of Mrs. L. O. Bement.

A cordial welcome to all new members was expressed by the chairman, who continued with a brief talk on Independence day and its relation to the nursing group. This was followed by a moment of silent prayer in which the assembled nurses were asked to concentrate on increased harmony in their profession and greater service to the community.

Interesting indeed were the reports of the State Nurses' convention given by Mrs. Nelson Smith, Miss Ruth Crawford and Mrs. L. O. Bement, and points most enthusiastically stressed in their informal talks were more efficient nursing service when and where it is needed by the patients; a council composed of physicians, nurses and laymen to assist in finding the community needs; and post graduate work conducted in Santa Ana.

In conclusion, the members of the group were served refreshments from a table arranged on the veranda, and which, with its snowy linen, its bowl of white roses, and other appointments in blue and red, offered an artistic conception of Fourth of July decorations.

Sana Ana Musicians Are Taking Part in Olympic Chorus

Among the many novel features being planned by the Southland as special entertainment during the Olympic games is the participation of the mixed chorus of 1200 voices to sing upon various occasions as the two weeks' Olympiad progresses. This chorus, now in weekly rehearsal in Philharmonic auditorium, Los Angeles, is recruited from outstanding church choirs, choruses and different singing groups of Los Angeles and vicinity, and draws nine members from Santa Ana, who are enthusiastic regarding the plan.

These nine local singers include Sally Lee Scales, soloist at the First Presbyterian church; Mrs. Lloyd Babbitt, active in Orange County Choral Union when it was a factor in this community's cultural life; Messrs. Lloyd Babbitt, A. J. Garraway, F. L. Gibbs, W. K. Hillyard, J. E. Lloyd, J. A. Miller and Dr. K. H. Sutherland, all active members of the Cantando club.

The Tuesday night rehearsals have been under way several weeks, and when the chorists were first assembled it was impossible to use the number of singers who appeared for try-outs. Literally hundreds were turned away, so great was the desire of Southland singers to take part in this unique affair.

J. Arthur Lewis, Los Angeles musician and teacher, is directing the chorus, and will present it in the first public appearance to-night at the Olympic Stadium between 8 and 9 o'clock. The program, which will include various other numbers all connected with the Olympiad, will be broadcast over the entire world. The National Broadcasting company will handle the service for the United States, and short wave equipment will send the program on to foreign countries. Locally, the program may be heard over KECA, Los Angeles.

Accompaniments for chorus numbers will be played by Harold Roberts' "Golden State Band" augmented until it includes 200 pieces. Although the program for tonight's initial appearance has not been announced, the chorus has under rehearsal for its different appearances, such numbers as the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah"; Kipling's "Recessional," the new "Hymn Olympic" written by an Angeleno especially for the 1932 games, and various national hymns and anthems.

Also a number of college songs are in preparation in readiness for the big East-West football game, when Harvard, Yale, Princeton and other eastern universities will be programmed together with those of California, Stanford and U. S. C.

The first Olympic program will be given on the opening afternoon, July 30, and others will follow on half a dozen different occasions, all of the concerts to be available to unseen audiences by reason of the radio broadcasts.

Church Societies

Plans were completed for the summer vacation Bible school to be conducted by Calvary church, at the regular all-day meeting of the executive board of the Women's Missionary society of that church held Tuesday in the home of Mrs. William A. Hazen, 600 Fadden street. Bible classes for children will be held in the homes of Mrs. R. Earl Elliott, Mrs. John T. Maret, Mrs. W. A. Chapman and Mrs. William Breckenridge.

The president, Mrs. Lewis J. Gall, presided at the meeting and Mrs. Mary Rowley led in prayer. Plans were discussed for the joint meeting of the Missionary societies of the three Calvary churches of Santa Ana, Placentia and Belvedere Gardens, to be held July 28 at Anaheim city park. Husbands and children of the members will be guests at the affair. Mrs. Erroll H. Barnes, social chairman, will be in charge of the afternoon's entertainment. Following a basket dinner at 6 o'clock, a talk by a missionary or a preacher is scheduled to follow.

At noon a covered-dish luncheon was enjoyed, with Mrs. D. P. Leonard assisting Mrs. Hazen in hostess duties. Those present were Mrs. Lewis J. Gall, Mrs. C. E. Pollins, Mrs. John T. Maret, Mrs. Josephine Blood, Mrs. D. P. Leonard, Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin, Mrs. Erroll H. Barnes, Mrs. Frank E. Lindgren, Mrs. Mary Rowley, Mrs. William Breckenridge, Mrs. William L. Gibbs, Mrs. W. A. Chapman, Mrs. R. Earl Elliott, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Milo E. Allen, Mrs. H. L. Burchfield and Glenn C. Bower, of Garden Grove, and the hostess, Mrs. Hazen.

Prizes in equal taste had been provided, and these were bestowed as first and consolation awards upon Mrs. Philip Lalonde, who ranked high, and Mrs. Don Hamilton, of Long Beach, whose ranking was low.

Club members enjoying the Long Beach hospitality were Mesdames Louis Bittle, Francis Jacoby, Virgil Shidler, Frank King, Kenneth Stowe, Earl J. Lepper, Earl Neer, William Lawrence, Philip Lalonde and W. F. Bettis, all of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Don Hamilton and the hostess, Mrs. R. A. Terrell, of Long Beach.

Original Play Brings Missionary Year To Close

The Woman's society of the First Baptist church held its all day meeting Wednesday when White Cross and Industrial work occupied the morning hours, with a prayer service at 11 a. m. The theme for the day was White Cross work.

Special guests for the luncheon and afternoon program were World Wide guild girls. The guild is a junior missionary organization, and has its own White Cross quotas to fill. Tables at noon were decorated with blue streamers, white flowers and small flags, combining the blue and white colors of the W. W. G. with the patriotic note. After luncheon the girls who have just returned from camp at Pacific Palisades gave talks about their impressions and experiences. The following girls spoke: Jean Estelle McBurney, Roberta Nicholls, Maryanne Newcomer, Evelyn Wiebe and Marjorie Wood. Mrs. Otto S. Russell of Los Angeles, wife of a former pastor, was also a guest, and brought her greetings to the society.

Reports Are Given
During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. C. W. Brakeman, special interest was shown in the report of the White Cross chairman, Mrs. E. G. Glenn, when she told of sending away boxes of White Cross material, two to Burma, one to India, one to Africa and one to China. The W. W. G. girls also reported sending a box to China.

Devotions for the day were led by Mrs. I. W. Foster, who took as her text: "I will guide thee," Psalms 22:8.

Mrs. E. G. Glenn and Mrs. Bertha Miller then presented the climax of the program, an original play, "The Greater Vision," written by Mrs. Albert Hill and directed by Mrs. W. A. Atkinson. Mrs. Miller was property chairman. Real characters in three of the Baptist missions in Tovea, Ariz., Sona Bata, Africa, and Swatow, China; were used, and incidents woven in from missionaries' letters.

Mrs. C. W. Brakeman, representing the "Woman's Society," and Mrs. Albert Hill representing "The Spirit of White Cross," appeared in prologue and epilogue.

Characters in Play
Those taking part in the first act were Mrs. Edward Davison, missionary; Mrs. Nell Beisel, government field matron; Indian Christian boy, Mrs. E. Steffensen; Indian trader, Mrs. Hugh Wiley; Indian girl, Ruth Jenkins.

The second act had the following women: missionary nurse, Mrs. A. M. Robinson; missionary doctor, Mrs. Fanny Reeves; native nurses, Dorothy Robinson and Ethel Gilbert; native women, Mrs. Eugene McBurney and Mrs. C. W. Nash.

In the third act the cast was: Miss Gertrude Minor, doctor; Mrs. Ashley Knowlton, nurse; Mrs. Ernest Ashland, Chinese house boy; Margaret Lockett, Chinese child; Mrs. Pearl Ruddy, Chinese woman.

Humor, pathos and tragedy were combined in the well written play, and every character was excellently portrayed. The program made a fine ending for the year's work.

Music, giving the atmosphere for each act was as follows: Indian songs "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water" and "Pale Moon" sung by Mrs. J. L. Steffensen, accompanied by Miss Mayme Havens; Negro spirituals, "Oh Didn't It Rain" and "Weeping Mary," by Burleigh, sung by Mrs. C. G. Nalle accompanied by Miss Havens; and "One Fine Day" from "Madame Butterfly" sung by Miss Florene Pollock, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Pollock, and a Chinese duet by Mrs. C. G. Nalle and Miss Mayme Havens with drum notes by Mrs. J. L. Steffensen.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mesdames David Meyer, Jeffe Hosen, Eugene McBurney, M. F. Evans, and C. A. Harp and E. A. Davidson, and 120 women enjoyed their hospitality and the afternoon program.

Long Beach Woman Hostess at Club Gathering

Shifting the locale of their meetings from Santa Ana to Long Beach for a single afternoon, the women of a card club meeting regularly were guests of Mrs. R. A. Torrell yesterday at a bridge affair which had its setting in her Long Beach residence.

Deep-shaded gladioluses greeted the guests from every room as they entered and this type of decoration was duplicated in the appointments of the small luncheon tables where covers were indicated for the dozen members.

Affianced Twins Will Have Double Wedding In Glendale Church

With the issuing of invitations to a double wedding to take place at the Wee Kirk o' the Heather in Glendale on July 17, Santa Anans were advised today for the first time of the engagement of the Misses Ruth and Naomi Bulpitt, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bulpitt of Bishop, and sisters of Dr. J. M. Bulpitt of this city. Both girls attended the Santa Ana Junior college for two years after graduating from the Bishop high school.

The decision to make of the wedding a double event is regarded by friends as a particularly happy one, inasmuch as the two girls are twins and bear a particularly striking resemblance to one another. Wedding details are expected to accentuate this resemblance.

Both of the betrothed young women are graduates of the University of California at Los Angeles, having entered that institution following completion of their junior college work in Santa Ana. Teaching has occupied each in the intervening years, the young graduates holding positions on the school faculties of Bishop and of Big Pine.

Miss Ruth Bulpitt is to wed Dr. Bernard Pierson, who has just finished his internship at the Sacramento County hospital, while Miss Naomi Bulpitt is affianced to William Condit, instructor at the Bishop high school. Both couples expect to establish residence in Bishop, where Mr. Condit will continue his work in the high school, while Dr. Pierson will be associated with Dr. Nicola, well known medico of Inyo county.

A train of showers is following in the wake of the announcement, several of these already having been arranged to take place in Los Angeles and in Santa Monica, beginning early next week. Among homes which will be opened to hospitality honoring the twin fiancées are those of their sister, Dr. Harriet Randall, of Hondo, and of their brother, Dr. Paul Bulpitt of Santa Monica.

Miss McPeak, Soon to Leave for East, is Party Honoree

Complimenting Miss Rebecca McPeak, who is leaving soon with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. McPeak, for the east, was a delightful farewell party at which Miss Margaret Finley entertained recently in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Finley, of Newport road. Girls sharing in the merry affair recently enjoyed a week's vacation at Torquay, Y. W. C. A. camp at Catalina Island.

Following a charmingly appointed 6 o'clock dinner the happy group attended a theater in Santa Ana and spent the night in the Finley home. After breakfast, served amidst the previous day's floral setting of snapdragons and zinnias, the girls motored to Corona del Mar and enjoyed a day of beach sports.

Those present, other than the hostess, Miss Finley, and her honoree, Miss McPeak, were the Misses Nona Planting, Jane Demming, Grace Hought, Joice Moss, Dorothy Cromer, Sally Newkirk, Priscilla Adams and Jess Fallis, of Anaheim; the Misses Jean Hoy, Marion Hawk, Marge Lindsay, and Lorraine Woolley, of Santa Ana. Miss Woolley expects to leave soon to attend college in the east.

At 6:45 p. m. Carlos Molina and His Coconut Grove Tango Orchestra will be on the air by electrical transcription with another 15-minute offering of popular dance music.

Charlotte Morgan and Her Songs will follow the orchestra presentation. Charlotte Morgan has a large following of radio listeners who eagerly await each presentation by the "Personality Girl of Radio."

KREG NOTES

Tsk! Tsk! Tsk! Naughty, Naughty Mr. "A. P. Pinkton" has threatened to discuss "Sweeties" who like rough stuff, tonight during the Hollywood Keyhole program. Also he will tell a "stranger than fiction" story of good fortune and John Conditine, so tune in all you lads and lassies of raidland and get a load of whatever it is that "Pinkton" has to broadcast.

Following the policy of having a visiting pastor conduct the services each day, sponsors of The Little Church of the Wildwood have announced that tomorrow the pastor will be the Rev. C. D. Hicks, pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance church of Santa Ana.

It is expected that Joe and his bird dog Giacomo will uncover something tonight during the broadcast of "Jasper Junction." A lot of unnecessary happenings have marked recent episodes but who knows—maybe tonight's discovery will be important.

ANN MEREDITH'S MIXING BOWL

Diet in Relation to Hair and Nails
Dry, brittle fingernails are a source of embarrassment to the possessor and a definite indication that this person is starving for foods rich in silicon and flourine, organic sulphur and lime.

It is significant that hidden illness, or indication of lowered vitality, will show up in breaking nails and falling hair, long before the individual is conscious of feeling badly.

It isn't necessary to spend money for medicine to correct the ordinary cases of nail or hair trouble—just correct your diet and the hair and nails will respond in due time. This correction applies to your choice of food. Eat foods that have not been refined by removing the husks, as in the case of white polished rice and white flour. Fruits that can be eaten with the skins, should be. The same is true of vegetables. Bran, cooked preferably, must be a part of the daily diet. Some of the corrective elements are found in egg yolk (organic sulphur) and milk is one great source of lime. Boiled down, it means eating lots of green vegetables and fruits, cooked or raw, bran breads and brown rice, with milk, butter, cheese and eggs as the chief source of the protein and fat foods.

Just a word of caution: If you suffer in any degree from colitis limit the use of bran and use only those vegetables and fruits which can be cooked to a puree, utilizing the skins. There will be something else about the treatment of brittle nails on Saturday. Watch for it.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Cream of Spinach Soup
1 quart rich milk
2 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons butter
1 or more cups finely chopped spinach
Chopped parsley
Paprika, salt and pepper
A little grated onion or
4 blade chives, minced
Good dash of garlic salt

The main dish for next day's luncheon can be easily prepared if spinach is the vegetable for dinner the night before—so cook a little extra with that end in mind.

Set the quart of milk to heat, add the butter and blend the flour smooth in a little cold water. Stir into the scalded milk and cook to a thin cream. Chop the spinach until it resembles meal and add to the cream sauce. Season with paprika and onion, salt and pepper. Just before serving give the garlic salt shaker a shake or two over the soup, stir well and pour into hot soup cups. A dash of paprika adds color and flavor to the top of each cup.

A quart of soup will serve six and the calories will amount to about 160 per serving. Fats and proteins are the main constituents in this soup. In other words it is what is called "nourishing" and should be avoided by the pleasantly plump.

IN NEWEST ROLE

Joan Blondell, blond star, who has the leading role in "Make Me a Star," which opens a three-day run today at the Fox Broadway theater. Six other big stars are seen in the production.

REAL STORY OF HOLLYWOOD AT FOX BROADWAY

The real Hollywood, its heartbreaks, its glamor, its wild striving for story-book success, its tinsel and fantasy, its comedy—as seen through the eyes of hundreds of our young men and women who have been there to try for fame and who have failed—or won.

That's the picture which Paramount brings to screen audiences at the Fox Broadway theater with the opening there of "Make Me a Star."

Joan Blondell and Stuart Erwin head the featured cast with ZaSu Pitts and Ben Turpin.

As the clerk in the country store who is reviled for his high-cattin' ideas about acting, Erwin is seen in a characterization that lifts him to the greatest heights of cinematography he has ever attained. Audiences are bound to live with him the hardships, the disappointments and the final thrills which he experiences when he goes to Hollywood, with his hard-earned savings—and makes the grade there in a way that he had never dreamed of in his wildest flights of fancy.

Joan Blondell is the hard-boiled "double" for a famous star who sympathizes with Erwin and gets him his first chance to act before the Hollywood cameras. Helen Jerome Eddy is his small-town girl friend whose eternal faith in his abilities spurs him on to make sacrifices that would otherwise have died a-borning.

ZaSu Pitts furnishes additional humor, with a typical "dead pan" impersonation.

Others in the cast of this splendid comedy-romance-drama are Charles Sellon, veteran character actor; Florence Roberts, Ruth Connolly, Frank Mills, Polly Waters, Arthur Hoyt and Dink Templeton.

While the elephant is producing one offspring, an oyster is able to lay 1,000,000,000 eggs.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. You often break out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Remember a substitute. See at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

RETURN TO BERKELEY

FULLERTON, July 7.—Word has been received by Mrs. Albert Symmonds, 224 Jacaranda, that her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Ackley, (Jackie Lee Symmonds) have returned to their home in Berkeley after a month's honeymoon. They were married the last of May. Mr. Ackley is a teacher and a student at the university. Mrs. Ackley plans to attend school this winter.

DOUBLE BILL SEEN AT FOX WEST COAST

A double feature bill will be presented to the Fox West Coast theater patrons Friday and Saturday, it was announced today by the management. This is a change in the usual custom, only one picture having been shown on Fridays and Saturdays heretofore.

The bill for tomorrow and Saturday will be "Secrets of a Secretary," starring Claudette Colbert.

bert and William Boyd, and "Sweepstakes," which features Eddie Quillan and has in the cast James Gleason, Marian Nixon and Lew Cody.

This latter picture is one of the best that Eddie Quillan has ever made. As its name suggests it is a race track film, with a dynamic plot which is thrilling from start to finish. "Secrets of a Secretary" is the story of what goes on behind office doors both during office hours and afterwards. Miss Colbert is splendid in the role of the secretary.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

Three of the Tines promptly hopped inside the balloon, but Scouty stopped and asked, "Where will it take us, when we get up in the air?"

"At other times we have been tossed around by wind till we were lost. If that's to happen this time, for the ride, do not care."

The kindly old balloon man smiled and then he said, "Don't worry, child. You'll merely have a real good time, and then come to the ground."

"Jump in! You have no time to lose. I'll wait right here and take a snore. When you come back again, beneath that bush I can be found."

So Scouty joined the others who were yelling, "Hey! What's ailing you? We're not afraid to take this trip. The sky is very clear. Just hang on tight and up we'll go. If we rise fast, instead of slow, it won't be very long until we'll be real far from here."

"Goodby," exclaimed the friendly man, as to his sleeping spot he ran. And then the big balloon went up. It gave the bunch a thrill. When they had risen about a mile, a brown displaced wee Dun-cy's smile. Said he, "It's getting cold up here. I fear I'll get a chill."

Another Tine then cried out, "What is that flying 'round about? It looks like a great big bird. And that's just what it was!"

Said Windy, "Watch it dive and dip. I hope it does not spoil our trip. You'd think that it was crazy! See the funny stunts it does."

The bird came closer, much too soon, and started pecking the balloon. "Get out of here," cried Coppy. "Do you think we want to flop?" The bird, however, grew real rough. It pecked until the bag went "puff!" As soon as all the wind was out, the balloon began to drop.

BEACH C. OF C. MEMBERS PLAN TRIP TO RANCH

NEWPORT BEACH, July 7.—Lower California is one of the most inviting places in the world to visit, members of the Newport Harbor Service club were told at their luncheon yesterday noon by Stuart H. Lucas, one of the club members who makes frequent business trips to the Hamilton ranch, owned by a sister-in-law.

So enamored were the club members over Baja California, as Lower California is called by both Spanish and English speaking people below the line, that a committee was named by President Leroy P. Anderson to report on the feasibility of making a trip to Hamilton ranch by airplane after the present summer season.

The committee consists of H. H. Hodgkinson and Chief of Police R. R. Hodgkinson, and a show of hands indicated that many of the members will take the air trip if the price and date are satisfactory.

Lucas said that he makes the trip from his home in Corona del Mar to the Hamilton ranch, 110 miles south of Escondido in one morning. However, for those who do not know the road, he would advise a leisurely trip of two days, one day to Escondido and the second day the rest of the distance.

Ray J. Saunders told of two trips he had made with his illuminated boat, on behalf of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce, advertising the Tournament of Lights. One was to Catalina island, the other to Los Angeles and Long Beach harbors. He had contacted many boat owners and others on the two jaunts.

G. C. Macleod, chamber of commerce secretary, said that Chairman Harry Williamson's work indicated another great lights fiesta a week from next Saturday night, in spite of the handicaps under which the committee is working.

FAY BUSHARD, MIDWAY CITY MAN MARRIED

TALBERT, July 7.—A romance which began in grammar school days culminated in the wedding on July 2 of Miss Fay Bushard, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Bushard, pioneer residents of Talbert, and Wilbur Griffith of Midway City. The marriage ceremony was performed before Judge Moore of Riverside county, the magistrate being the brother of an English teacher of both the bride and groom during the four years of high school in Huntington Beach. A wedding ring of Miss Bushard's grandmother, Mrs. Mellie Ellis, local pioneer, was used. The date marked the 50th wedding anniversary of the grandparents.

The vows were exchanged at 12:30 o'clock with only close relatives attending: Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Bushard, parents of the bride, her sister, Louise Bushard, of Talbert; Mrs. Fern Griffith, of Midway City.

The lovely bride was charmingly gowned in an ensemble of white silk with accessories to match, while the "something blue" was the larkspur, which with pink rose buds formed her corsage bouquet.

Following the ceremony the party dined at the Riverside Mission Inn. The newly married pair left later for Lake Arrowhead. Since their return the new Mr. and Mrs. Griffith have been at the L. J. Bushard home and expect to divide their time between here and Midway City, where they will be with Mr. Griffith's mother on Wilcox street.

HARBOR GROUP SUPPORTS MOVE TO SAVE HOMES

NEWPORT BEACH, July 7.—Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce directors at a meeting yesterday voted unanimously to support moves calculated to save owners of small homes from losing them, and favoring the taxing of salaries of government employees in the same way as the incomes of other people.

Action on the former question followed receipt of a copy of a resolution passed by the Maywood Chamber of Commerce, and a committee, consisting of Ralph P. Maskey, H. H. Williamson and Lew H. Wallace, was named by Chairman W. L. Jordan to bring in a report as the best means to adopt, especially in regard to trust deeds and deficiency judgments.

Action on incomes of those employed by government and state political subdivisions was taken after a resolution recently passed by the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce along similar lines was read. Mark Johnson, former mayor of Newport Beach, was named a director of the chamber, succeeding A. H. Fitzpatrick, who recently resigned owing to the press of other duties.

Harry H. Williamson, chairman of the Tournament of Lights committee, reported that prospects for a great light fiesta on July 16 were very bright.

Commodore J. A. Beek, chamber director who was present, had accepted the position of chairman of the judging committee; Williamson said. Other judges would be prominent newspaper men of Orange county, from communities which had floats in the parade.

Williamson also announced that a canvass was being made of new residents of Lido Isle who own boats, and that they are expected to enter the lights parade almost without exception.

PRESIDENT AND SPEAKER IN THE RING

Speaker Garner and President Hoover are in a contest over the character of the proposed unemployment relief bill. This measure, which has been agreed upon by the Senate and the House, would add a billion and a half of dollars to the resources of the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

The bill also enlarges the powers of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, and authorizes loans for self-liquidating projects to states, counties and other political subdivisions, and permits loans to any private company, partnership or corporation upon adequate security.

As now designed, the loans from this governmental organization are confined to banks, railroads and building and loan companies. Undoubtedly under the theory as the Reconstruction Finance corporation is now organized and operating, it is conceived that the banks and loan companies will determine which individuals are the ones to whom loans can be made or should be made. And the Reconstruction Finance corporation is loaning such individuals through the banks and loan companies as intermediaries.

The proposed law would change this, so that the individuals could go to the Reconstruction Finance corporation direct. There are arguments on both sides of this proposition. On the face of it, one would suggest that the Reconstruction Finance corporation should only loan to those people who are sure of paying the money back within a limited period of time. But the fact that considerable of this money is being loaned to railroads, which have no chance of paying it back, and the fact they are borrowing because they are unable to redeem the bonds held by the bondholders, is rather proof that the loans by the Reconstruction Finance corporation are not based upon the best security.

Private banks have in many cases been able to open up only through this same money, and these banks could not have borrowed in some cases, from any other bank upon the security that was offered, but they do it from the Reconstruction Finance corporation, in which every taxpayer is interested. Locally, we believe that the people are being taken care of in respect to loans just as well as they could be under the program that Congress presents. But it does, of course, present the necessity of the borrower doing his borrowing through the banks.

It may be that in other sections of the country, and with some individuals, this enlargement of the powers would be a just and satisfactory addition to the law. We do not understand why particular classes should be selected to receive the benefits in any case. If the decision were left with the organization, and based upon security and values, it does seem as though it would be more democratic in its character.

There are national reasons why the railroads should receive aid, aside from any personal need whatever. Every enterprise is dependent upon them. Of course, when it comes to the point that loans are made as they are made to the Missouri Pacific to take up the bonds held by the Morgan interests, it looks as though the money were being paid indirectly into the Morgan treasury. But at the same time, insurance companies and others holding securities in the railroads, will be saved from disaster only as the railroad securities are sustained.

Those who support the position of Mr. Garner possibly would have no difficulty in buying some railroads, banks, or building and loan companies, if they desire to get loans, as in some sections of the country, some of these institutions can be purchased for very considerably less than the normal value of their physical assets. In fact, he might have some companies given him if he is not careful. Then he could use the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

Of course, it does cause a little questioning as one notes that Mr. Dawes stepped from the head of the Reconstruction Finance corporation to take charge of the Central Republic bank of Chicago, and that simultaneously with the stock going down from $44 to $4 that he was able to borrow some $80,000,000 from the Reconstruction Finance corporation to sustain the bank. Eighty million dollars is a lot of money, and particularly for a corporation, the stock of which has dropped in any such manner as that.

Borrowing money from ourselves, as a people, to loan to ourselves is a great deal like lifting ourselves by our bootstraps. But to the argument that for all of us to do the loaning for the benefit of part of us, we can hardly conceive of a complete answer. But we do know that had this not been done, thousands of more banks in the country would have gone to the wall, causing greater wreck and ruin than we have yet experienced. It may be called "unjust" or "class legislation," but it did help to save the nation for the time at least.

It's little wonder the nudist movement is making such headway, considering the number of people who are constantly talking about having lost their shirts.

THE EASTERN AND THE WESTERN FARMER

When we are talking of the plight of the farmer, we are apt to forget that the farmer whose plight is always before us, and for whom legislation is continually being sought, is not the Eastern farmer nor the farmer who raises citrus fruits in California and in Florida. Recent reports from both sections indicate that the latter is not quite so badly off as the average industrialist. The Eastern farmer has a nearby market for his dairy products and his garden truck. The citrus grower has his industry well organized and under control.

It is the Western farmer and the Southern cotton grower who seems to be wrestling with the greatest problem. They are dealing for the most part with products which figure in a world market. Among these there has been little planning and little co-operation, and while their plight is not altogether their entire fault, there are those who believe that its solution is more under their control than they suppose.

It would seem as if the great demands of modern industrial society might offer the farmer a much better market than he ever had in the days when the country was largely rural. We sympathize with the Western farmer in his present plight; but we cannot resist the conclusion that more than he now believes, it is ultimately up to him to work out his own salvation.

INDEPENDENCE BONDS FROM PUERTO RICO

Unusual tolerance is evidenced by the government, in contrast to the action of Los Angeles in silencing William Z. Foster before he had an opportunity even to utter dangerous doctrine. A bond issue of five million dollars intended to "finance the fight for Puerto Rican independence" was announced in Spanish-language newspapers in the east. According to news dispatches from Washington it was indicated that neither the War Department nor the State department had any intention of doing anything about the floating of the Puerto Rican independence bonds.

The Puerto Ricans have for fifteen years been citizens of the United States. Nevertheless their leaders have been impatient for greater independence. The Republican party of Puerto Rico has been urging Statehood, and the Unionist party demanding ultimate independence. Some years ago these two parties became allies and agreed to concentrate on demanding the right to elect their Governor who is now appointed by the President. That program not meeting with success a body of the Puerto Ricans again demanded independence.

At the present time there is in Puerto Rico a Liberal party which has programmed independence as an ultimate goal but plans to work with the present government until independence is achieved. There is also a branch of more militant "Independence" who have a policy of having nothing to do with the United States. They have been carrying on a vigorous anti-American campaign.

About the Cat and the Soap

San Francisco Chronicle

Soap, it would appear from a recent report on household accidents, is becoming better trained to keep from getting under foot, while cats seem to be more careless than ever.

For a period of several years accident insurance companies warned the public against the deadly soap lurking in the bathroom. A year or so ago an actuary's report put the bath soap at the head of the list as a cause of mishaps in the home. A more recent one covering a total of 2317 accidents shows that twice as many people were injured by stepping on or falling over the cat as by sliding on the soap.

Does this mean that a cake of soap is more considerate or more intelligent than a cat? It is recalled in this connection that chickens, once an easy prey to motor cars, have learned to keep out of the path of danger. Is a cat less reasonable than a chicken? But to get back to the difference between the cat and the soap. Perhaps the report would be reversed if the soap were to luxuriate on the hearth rug and the cat frequented the bathtub. Another element to consider is the human impulse to kick the soap. Have the actuaries any figures on that side of the question?

Hole in the Pacific As Cause of Earthquakes

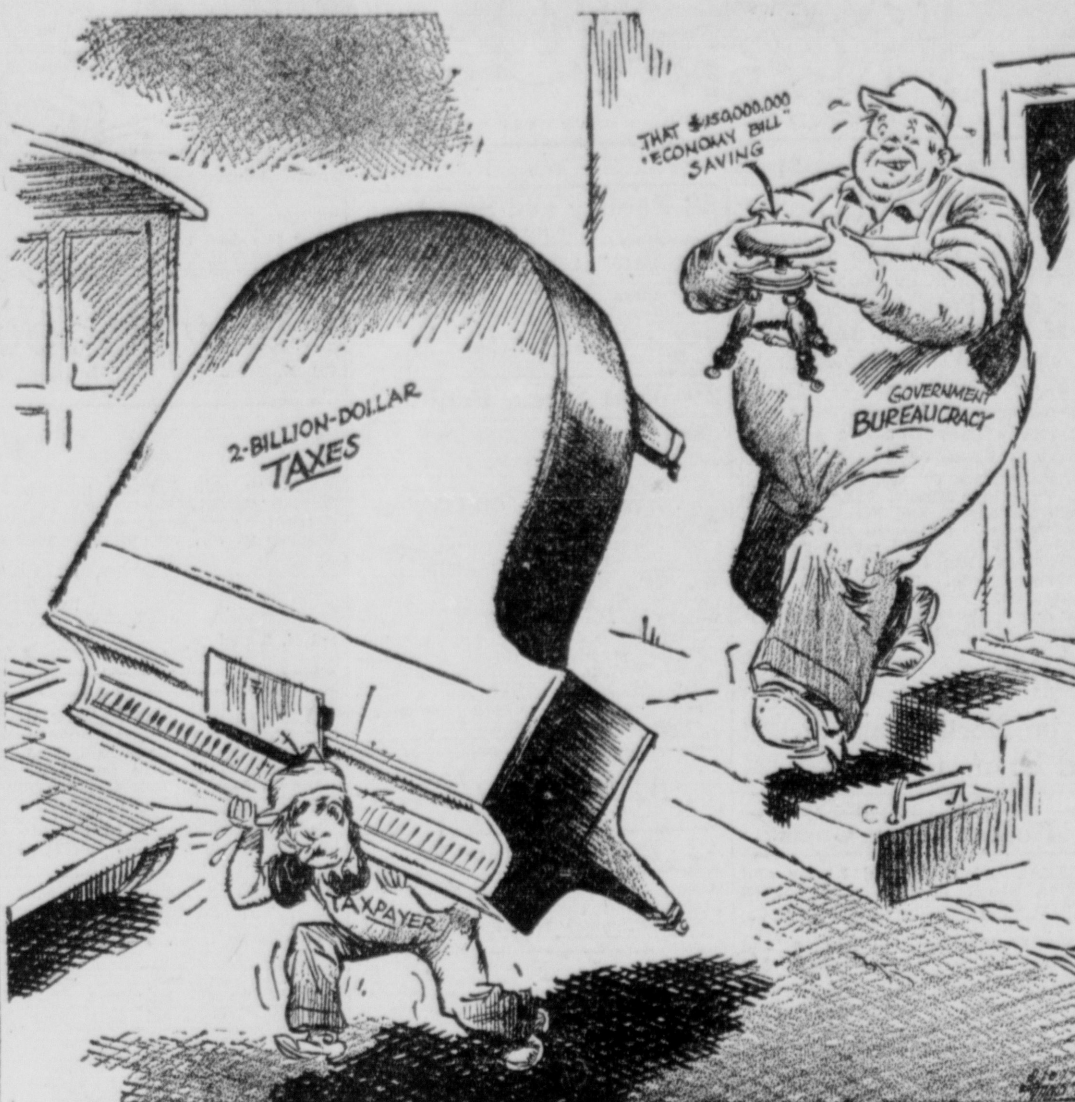

San Bernardino Sun

Mexico had some rather severe earthquakes lately. Dr. C. F. Richter of the Carnegie Seismological laboratory thinks the cause is probably avalanches of rock crashing into Acapulco trough, a great hole in the bed of the Pacific ocean.

This great Acapulco deep is 1000 miles long and more than three miles deep. Masses of rock sliding down into it with force can shake the whole Mexican peninsula.

The forces which have shaped the earth and continue to alter it are still mysterious to a high degree. Any young graduate who thinks he now knows it all might well go into the silence and consider how much nobody yet knows. Life and nature are of perennial interest, constantly affecting each other, constantly being studied, constantly turning up new facts and factors, ever taunting scientist and philosopher with the pettiness of their hitherto accumulated knowledge.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

TO A JULY ROBIN

When you came home, along in May,
And hopped about from tree to tree,
I very often used to say:
"How kind of you to sing to me—
To cheer me as I ply my task
Of delving in the stubborn sward
The whole day long, and never ask
A single penny for reward."

"The prima donnas of the stage,
Who also fill from some to zone,
Are paid a very handsome wage
For songs no sweeter than your own.
Your ditties never must be bought.
You do not seek your bread to earn,
But sing to me without a thought
Of expectation of return."

But now the cherries, glowing red,
Illuminate the laden boughs,
Your love of music, cold and dead,
Upon the ripening fruit you browse.
The while the summer breezes blow
You sate your greed the whole day long
And I discover you are now
Collecting for your Maytime song.

No longer I am in your debt,
For now that you've turned in your bill
I notice, with profound regret,
A cherry paid for every trill.
And yet I gladly listened in
In Spring, when you were on the air
With all your joyous kith and kin,
So after all, perhaps we're square.

So the whole country has gone crooked? Well, just how many crooks can you name?

After supper pop was smoking to himself in his private chair and ma came upstairs, saying, So, William, it's come to this, has it?

Has it? pop said, and ma said, You don't need to cry to pass it likely off with an assumed tone of pretended carelessness. I repeat, so it's come to this, has it?

Has what? Come to what? pop said. For Pete sake what's all the deep dark mystery? he said.

You mean to say you don't know what I've discovered? You mean to say you haven't a single guilty twinge? ma said, and pop said, I feel as stainless as a fresh sheet of blotting paper, what the dooce is all the shooting for, what did you discover?

I discovered a letter from a woman in the pocket of your raincoat, that's what I discovered, and explain it if you can, I'm waiting patiently, ma said.

I haven't had a letter from anybody, what's all this nonsense? pop said, and ma said, O no, I suppose not, there's gilt all over your face, I never saw a more criminal expression in my life. But I don't need your face, I have the letter right here, have the red handed evidents rite out of your overcoat pocket, she said.

Let's see it, what are you doing in my raincoat pocket anyway? pop said, and ma said, Ah, there speaks the guilty conscience, it's only the man with nothing to hide whose not afraid to have his pockets picked. Can you explain this letter or can't you? she said.

What letter for the love of Sherlock Holmes? Pop yelled, and ma said, In other words you can explain it. Well I can and I will. It's a letter from a woman, and I'm the woman. It's the selfsame letter I handed you to mail this morning and you stuck it in your raincoat pocket with your usual grand manner, and my suspicion was correct, it was still there, she said. Hee hee, I didn't scare you or anything, did I, William, hee hee, she said.

And she sent me out to mail the letter and when I got back she was still laughing and pop was in back of the sporting page pretending not to notice her.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

THE MIND FOR THE TIMES

Yesterday and the day before I spoke of the mixture of discouragement and hope that attacks the young men and women who have been graduated this year from American colleges and universities.

Today I want to pull together some things I have said from time to time about the sort of mind this particular phase we are in needs, the sort of mind that needs not fear the future—the free mind of the first-class man.

The marks of that mind may be readily identified. I referred to some of them by indirection the other day when I sought to write a prayer for the national conventions of 1932.

The free mind of the first-class man commits itself to no loyalty that contravenes its loyalty to the truth which it seeks to see, clearly and without bias, in the dry light of facts.

The free mind of the first-class man scorns enslavement to passion and to prejudices, brings to the bar of disinterested judgment the pleas of all parties and all powers, and ceaselessly searches out the motives that coin the catchwords of all classes, all cliques, and all clans.

The free mind of the first-class man cannot be taken in either by a democracy gone demagogic or by a plutocracy gone piratical.

The free mind of the first-class man is unswayed and unfettered alike by tyrannical majorities and by titrating minorities when the truth abides in neither.

The free mind of the first-class man is sincere in purpose and scientific in procedure.

The free mind of the first-class man scorns the masses, without flattering them and believes in them without bowing to their idolatries.

The free mind of the first-class man refuses alike the yoke of dogmatic reaction and the yoke of dogmatic radicalism.

The free mind of the first-class man, when called to positions of power, is not guilty of saying the things that will take rather than the things that are true.

The free mind of the first-class man practices its priesthood at the altar of realism.

These are the qualities of mind that alone can assure personal success and productive public service in the days ahead.

The American future waits to be captured and controlled by the free minds of first-class men.

RAINY DAYS

The very best way ever found to keep children happy is occupation. Keep them busy with work they like and they bother nobody but keep right on growing in grace and strength. Trouble comes when interest dies and there is nothing to do. Rainy days are the worst. For them we have to make special provision.

Have some place in which to keep material for rainy days. If you are lucky enough to have an attic the problem of space is settled. We can keep a host of things in an attic. If we have to live in a flat we aren't so fortunate but we can have chests and boxes in handy places. The things we need for the rainy days are as varied as the children's powers and tastes, their dreams and wishes.

All children like to dress up. Remember that in your travels about town and country and store away things that come in handy for dressing up. Strips of bright colored calico, strings of beads, straw hats of many shapes and colors, plumes, fancy dresses, suits, high hats, bags, pictures of fancy costumes, all these go into the rainy day box to come out amid shouts of approval some dreary day.

The toy box ought to have special equipment for rainy days. The idea is to have something handy to stimulate ideas and awaken fresh interests. You can't feel thrilled by a battered doll that has been about the house for a lifetime but if that doll only comes out on state occasions she will furnish the thrill. Puzzle, dolls, dishes, whistles, musical instruments like tin horns and jewsharps are great for the attic play. I wouldn't suggest them for living room service.

Save a good book for a rainy day and some child will call you blessed angel. Rainy days invite books. There are so many delightful ones you can buy and store if you can't get and paste pictures.

Have an old book that is no longer of use and show a child how to paste pictures on the pages so as to have a fine scrap book.

Cooking is a fine rainy day occupation if you can allow it in your kitchen. Children, very little children at that, love to cook. Give them a chance. Teach them how to make the things they like. We need all the good cooks we can get and this is a fine way to initiate them. If you can give a little girl a stove and dishes, a real cooking outfit, by all means do so. I've seen fine electric stoves, lovely pots and pans, kitchen equipment, that are just the thing for girls and boys to use in preparing a meal for their guest-chum.

It doesn't matter much what you furnish if it appeals to the tastes and interests of the children. You will find that an interesting occupation saved for a rainy day is twice welcome—to you and to the children.

(Mr. Patri will give personal attention to inquiries from parents and school teachers on the care and development of children. Write to him in care of this paper, enclosing stamped, addressed envelope for reply.)

TODAY IS THE WORLD WAR ANNIVERSARY

BREAK FROM RUSSIA

On July 7, 1918, the entire population on the Murman coast broke away from Russia and set up separate rule. They allied themselves with the entente and announced themselves ready to fight against Russian control. Supplies were received from the United States.

The White Guards occupied Yaroslavl, 173 miles northeast of Moscow, and disrupted communication between Moscow and Volodga.

American forces on the western front returned an attack staged two days previously by Germans on a front east of Hamel and in the Vosges. Where the Germans failed, the Americans were successful, taking much ground and several German prisoners.

Italian forces massed for an attack on the Grappa and Col Caprile fronts.
